Humane Society seeks yard sale donations

Oregon Coast Humane Society (OCHS) volunteers are collecting items for the upcoming annual Christmas Store, a major fundraiser for the animal shelter.

OCHS is asking the community to donate items that went unsold during the City-Wide Garage Sale last weekend to the animal shelter.

Items such as warm shirts, jackets, sweaters, caps and mittens are always popular items heading into winter, as well as Christmas décor, including wreaths and trees, tree ornaments, indoor and outdoor lights and dishes.

Other popular items are games, books and toys in good condition, and can be dropped off to the OCHS Thrift Store, 1193 Bay St. in Old Town.

Sign up Friday to serve on city committee

Would you like to see more public involvement in the City of Florence?

Do you want to make sure your voice is heard?

Would you like to make a difference and help contribute to the goals and objectives of the city as a whole?

Consider applying for one of the three open positions on the City of Florence Economic Development Committee.

The deadline for applications is Friday, Sept. 16.

These positions offer citizens an excellent opportunity to volunteer their services on significant matters.

Committee member contributions are invaluable to the mayor, the Florence City Council and the City of Florence.

Applying for a position is easy. Applications are available at Florence City Hall and can be downloaded from the City's website at ci.florence.or.us.

For details regarding the duties and responsibilities of the Economic Development Committee, residency requirements of applicants, term lengths, or any other questions, contact City Recorder Kelli Weese at 541-997-3437.

OBITUARY

CUNNINGHAM—Helen Frances Cunningham passed away quietly at her home in Florence on Sept. 7, 2016.

Helen Cunningham

Helen was born June 4, 1910, in New Britain, Conn., to Adam and Marianne Czarnicki, who had immigrated to the United States from Poland.

Helen was married for 67 years to James, who passed away in 2009.

Helen lived in Florence for 12 years, having relocated from San Diego, Calif., and Shady Cove, Ore.

Helen was preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters.

She is survived by one sister, Alberta, and her two daughters: Maryann Galer of Portland and Kat Cunningham of Florence.

She also leaves behind a granddaughter, Kathy Cruz, and her husband, Daniel; great-grandson Tyler; grandson David Spickler and great-grandchildren Angelina and Samuel.

Helen, who had celebrated her 106th birthday this year, was still putting her many talents to use by crocheting lap blankets for Spruce Point Care Unit guests and afghans for veterans at the hospital in Roseberg, Ore.

Many crib blankets were made for the Florence Parenting Center.

She enjoyed creating items for her daughter Kat's boutique in Florence, and creating jewelry for family and friends. She especially enjoyed the time she was able to don her lovely hats and join her Red Hat Ladies in their outings and get-togethers.

She was featured on the "Today Show" as part of Willard Scott's birthday tribute and received a special card from President and Mrs. Obama on the occasion of her 100th birthday.

Helen was a lady who will be greatly missed.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Burns's Riverside Chapel in Florence.

There will be a celebration of life held for both Helen and James, time to be announced.

There will also be a memorial mass celebrated at St. Mary's Our Lady of the Dunes in Florence.
