‘WE THE PEOPLE...’

Mayor proclaims this week Constitution Week

Florence Mayor Joe Henry presents a proclamation in support of Constitution Week, Sept. 17 to 23, to Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) representative Erica Westphal during the Sept. 19 Florence City Council meeting. Westphal in turn presented the city with a mounted copy of the Constitution of the United States. In 1955, the DAR petitioned Congress to create Constitution Week.

Siuslaw News invites the community to a Meet and Greet for new Editor Ned Hickson from 4 to 6 p.m. today, Sept. 21, at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St.

Books

from 1A

The authors and publishers represent many genres, including fiction, nonfiction, memoir, children’s books, young adult, western, mystery, humor, poetry and more. “We just are thrilled by the response we’ve had and the variety of people involved,” said Fleege. “It’s a wonderful group of writers covering all genres. Anybody who comes will certainly find a big variety to look through. And it’s a good opportunity to shop for Christmas. “Besides, the book is always better.” For more information, go to www.florencefestivalofbooks.org or contact the Florence Events Center at 541-997-1994 or eventcenter.org.
