NED HICKSON/SIUSLAW NEWS

Mapleton senior Josi Hays had sets against Lowell Thursday night. Hays had 3 attacks and 2 kills each against McKenzie and Lowell this week.

Sophomore Erin Michael led Mapleton in scoring with 2 kills, 2 aces and 11 digs. Sophomore Alyssa West had 10 digs and 1 kill. Sophomore Bailey Messick had 4 attacks and 3 aces. Senior Josi Hays had 3 attacks and 2 kills. Sophomore Haley Wells had 5 attacks, 3 kills and 18 digs, with 11 digs and 1 kill from senior Dana Halverson. Thursday night, the Sailors were back on their home court to take on 9-0 Lowell. “We had flashes of brilliance against the best team in the league,” said Crook, whose team rallied from a 9-point deficit in the third set before falling 17-25 to the Devils. The Sailors lost the first two sets, 13-25, 14-25. Michael served up 4 aces to go with 7 attacks and 2 kills. Hays had 4 kills and 7 attacks, Wells had 3 attacks and 1 kill, and West had 3 attacks and 1 kill. After 11 games in two weeks, the Sailors will have a short break before hosting two games next week as the Mountain West begins the second half of league competition. Tuesday, the Sailors will host Oak Hill, followed by Triangle Lake on Thursday. Both matches are set to begin at 6 p.m. at Mapleton High School.

hitters delivered across the net en route to a 25-14, 25-12, 25-16 win. “Abby has really started to control the game and allow us to be aggressive, particularly from the outside” said Siuslaw coach Jon Hornung. At the net, Siuslaw got solid performances from senior Elyssa Rose and York, each of whom had 8 kills against the Bruins. From the service line, sophomore outside hitter Alyssa Richards got some extra playing time after finishing off the second and third sets with her thunderous jump serve, which garnered her a game-high four aces.

Richards, along with sophomores Jordan Long, and McKenzie Colton, also got significant time off the bench, coming in and contributing with each rotation. Thursday, the Viks faced another scrappy team when they took on Douglas, a team that swept Siuslaw last season. This time, it was the Vikings’ who won out in a five-set match that began with a narrow 25-23 Siuslaw win. The Trojans went on to win the next two sets, 25-21, 25-22, with the Vikings tying the match at 2-2 with a 25-18 win that forced a fifth set. As teams have discovered this season, Siuslaw is a fifth-set kind of team and Thursday night was no different. After trading points with Douglas for the first 12 points, Siuslaw put the match away with a 15-12 win. The Vikings will finish off the first half of league next Tuesday on the road at North Bend, then kick off the second half of league on the road for a rematch with South Umpqua next Thursday. Matches begin at 6:30 p.m.
