Old Sol

1970

The Siuslaw News Feb. 12, 1970 Vol. 10, No. 6

Old Sol seems to bring out the urge to get out and do something such as riding the dunes near Florence. Large amounts of sunshine over the weekend proved a magnet to many people, drawing them to favorite summer recreation areas during "Summer in February" on the Oregon Coast.

"Endless Hills of Gold"

Since people have lived along the coast, they have been captivated by the miles of sand of the Oregon dunes. One early Florence resident called the dunes "endless hills of gold" in 1896. In the 1970s, people flocked to Florence to ride dune buggies in the sand. Our fascination with the dunes continues to this day. Now, people can sandboard, ride quads, dune buggies or dirt bikes, build sandcastles and explore the Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area.
