Transforming lives through learning at Lane Community College at Florence!

Credit: At LCC Florence, you can meet all the academic requirements to attain an Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer (AAOT) degree that will unlock the door to future educational opportunities across Oregon's four-year university system. You can also work toward a number of other transfer and career technical degrees or take classes to improve foundational academic skills.

Continuing Education: If you are a lifelong learner interested in personal or professional development, you'll find an amazing array of offerings at the Florence Center. From health and wellness, arts and recreation and the latest in technology and community-oriented classes to our renowned Outward Ventures program, you're sure to find classes you will enjoy.
