

Several members of the band are members of the Tirolean Dancers, which is also performing at this year's Oktoberfest.

The Alpine Echoes Band performs from 12:15 to 1:15 p.m., 1:45 to 2:30 p.m. and 4:15 to 5:15 p.m., during Happy Hour.

Skandia Leikarringen is a Scandinavian folk dance group located in Junction City. Although they dance primarily at the Junction City Scandinavian Festival each August, they are returning to Florence for the annual Oktoberfest. In addition, they have performed at the ScanFair in Portland, the Astoria Midsummer Festival and Lane County Fair. Currently made up of 10 to 12 couples, the dances are from the countries of Norway, Denmark, Sweden and Finland. They also do German folk dancing and perform their lively dances in colorful regional costumes.

Skandia Leikarringen performs its routine from 2:30 to 3 p.m. and again from 3:45 to 4:15 p.m.

The T-Club Band, based in Eugene, Ore., has been shaking dance floors from Ashland to Portland since the turn of the century with catchy reggae rock infused psychedelia. The band focuses on positive dancing and musical healing.

Having spanned over many miles and many years, the T-Club's line up has shown musical evolution at it's finest. Band members include Nate

York on vocals and guitar, Michelle Bellamy and Ambur Rose on vocals, Mark Anderson on bass, DJ Redeye on keys, turntables and percussion, Peter Merx on percussion, Mike D. on saxophone and vocals, Brian Y. on drums, Eric Edmondson on trombone and Mizzah on didgeridoo.

According to the T-Club, you never know who might be sitting in that night, but you are guaranteed a ruckus when the band rolls around.

The T-Club band plays from 5:40 to 8 p.m., with a brief intermission.
