Department of Forestry makes its case

JACK DAVIST/SIUSLAW NEWS

Approximately 20 area residents gathered at the Florence Events Center Monday to hear a presentation by the Oregon Department of Forestry (ODF) on Forestland Reclassification. The state has added additional acreage to its wildfire protection services. A tax of $1.17 per acre with a minimum assessment of $18.75 is levied to help fund administrative and wildfire fighting costs. ODF Public Affairs Director Ken Armstrong said, "Everyone was respectful and there was a good exchange of ideas." Link Smith, District Forester for Western Lane District (right), addresses attendees during the ODF presentation.

Dave's RE-CORNER

Most people have heard of the 3Rs of environmentally friendly behavior-

REDUCE is to use less of something. Use less water, turn off lights, use both sides of a paper.

REUSE is to use an item again. Refill a water bottle, reuse a container and buy reusable bags.

RECYCLE is to make new items from old ones; recycle bottles, glass, paper, cans, plastic, cardboard & more.

Tip
Use natural cleaning products. Safe cleaning products don't have to be a luxury. Natural cleaning products are made of plant-based, biodegradable ingredients like corn, coconut and lemon (which leave no harsh chemical fumes or residue) and are affordable and accessible — you can find them at supermarkets, drugstores and mass-market retailers.

Quiz (answer will be in next Saturday's edition)
Answer to Previous Quiz: B Reusing
If you take your used oil to a drop off site, you are...

Boardwalk Market donates to Food Share

On Sept. 25, the Board of Directors for the Florence Boardwalk Market donated its profit from operation of the Crafters and Farmers Market for the 2016 season to Florence Food Share.

A check for $500 was presented to Food Share's Fundraising Committee chairwoman, Bonnie MacDuffee, by Boardwalk Market president Steve Wilson.

This is the second year the Florence Boardwalk Market Directors have selected Food Share as the recipient of this gift.

In 2012, the Florence Boardwalk Market was formed for the purpose of producing the Florence Boardwalk Market, a local crafters and farmers marketplace every weekend through the summer, adjacent to the Port of Siuslaw's Boardwalk on the Siuslaw River in Old Town Florence.

The organization is managed and operated by a volunteer board of directors, with the market's first weekend coinciding with Rhododendron ending the last weekend of Festival weekend in May, and September.
