TR Hunter Real Estate

It has been delightful to serve the Florence community in the capacity of Realtor for the past 13 years, and now that I can Notarize, my services are growing. My family in childhood lived in a small town, too, that contracted and plastered homes. I can still recall smells of fresh cut wood. It's so much of the small moments to be grateful for. I wish to take this opportunity to Thank each and everyone of the folks coming through here, and to wish You a fulfilling upcoming Holiday season.

Windermere/Florence Real Estate

I was born in Florence and raised in the Mapleton area all of my life. I have three children who attend Mapleton High School. I recently graduated with my Business Administration Degree and earned my Oregon Real Estate Brokers license. I am constantly searching for opportunities to advance my education and professional career through continuing education classes as they become available. I am anxious to share my knowledge of the local area with newcomers and serve local area residents in the sale of their home.

Seasons of Grace

Compassion, hospitality... and tea.

That is what you will find upon entering Seasons of Grace, Family Counseling. I spent 33 years traveling as an international flight attendant with my husband Gary. We also operated a successful B&B for over 30 years on Oahu.

Cynthia (Cyndie Quinn)

I acquired my Masters in Counseling in Hawaii & was licensed in 2005 as an LMFT. Make an appointment, where a listening heart, and a cup of tea will greet you. Aloha!

Siuslaw News

Florence has been my home for 64 years and I find it the most beautiful place to be.

I have worked at the Siuslaw News for 39 years and have recently decided to retire. My work has consisted of creating display advertising and section covers, plus merging the work of our news staff with that of the advertising department. My final responsibility is to finalize the pages and send them on to be printed at our press plant in Coos Bay.

Carolyn Nordahl

I also have a home-based business named Echo Graphics. I do much of the same things as I have done at the Siuslaw News... mostly business materials such as cards and brochures, plus posters, flyers and advertisements.

Recently I have written two books illustrated with my own watercolors. The first is Grandma's Window Shade, loosely written around my childhood. My second book is A Skunk In The Garden- a children's book dealing with prejudice and the importance of acceptance.

After my retirement at the 'Snews' Richard and I plan to enjoy time with our family and to do some light travelling. Also, I am a crafter so I will be dedicating much of my time exploring the possibilities of what I can create next!

Siuslaw News

Chantelle is now the features editor at Siuslaw News, formatting, editing and creating the special features and editions of the twice-weekly Florence-area newspaper. She loves the creativity she gets to use daily, and the chance to feature her own and the editorial staff's writing and photographs. Her main goal is to live a creative life, and she can definitely say she is.

Chantelle Meyer
Features Editor
Social Media Coordinator

When not working, Chantelle likes to volunteer with area theater and community groups. She also likes to read, dress in costume, make art and write juvenile fiction. She has an MFA in Children's Literature and looks forward to publishing some of her own books in the future.

Integrity Plumbing

Racheal was raised most of her life in Florence since moving from Utah when she was in grade school. Her aunt and Uncle, Don and Glenda Moore, started Integrity Plumbing, Inc. 2001 making it a family business to her parents and other members of the family. Racheal started working for Integrity in 2012 and has proven her knowledge of plumbing since growing up around it.

Racheal Dobson
Office Assistant

Racheal is the mother of 4 beautiful children who she loves spending every possible moment with when she is not at work. She also attends a local church in Florence to which she is very involved in and is very passionate about.

Racheal feels very fortunate to work for family, but more importantly, for people who stand behind the name of Integrity and it shows in her work to the public.

Siuslaw News

My husband Dave and I were both born and raised in Springfield, Oregon. We graduated from Thurston High School. Dave and I married in June of 1979 and moved to Florence two months later. Dave manages and works on the family timber farm outside of Springfield as well as working in construction.

Jeanna Petersen
Account Representative

We enjoy spending time with our grown children. Bryce and Carly live on the family farm in Springfield while Trent and Jenna continue to live here in Florence. We are looking forward to summer of 2017, when Trent and Jenna (Hoberg) marry. We are so excited to have another daughter in the family! As a family, we enjoy target practice, trap shooting, riding quads and bowling.

I began working at the Siuslaw News in February 2003. I am in the sales department as an account representative. I enjoy getting to know my clients and helping them with their advertising needs.
