Volunteer whale watchers sought

The Oregon Parks and Recreation Department (OPRD) is seeking whalelovers to participate in its annual Whale Watching Spoken Here program.

The program places trained volunteers at 24 whale-watching sites along the Oregon from feeding areas off the 25 through 31, 2017. Alaska coast and birthing areas near Baja, Mexico.

Volunteers who complete the one-day training may select a whale-watching site where they will be stationed to assist visitors in spotting gray whales and maintain a count of whales

New this year, volunteers can register for the training online at www.whalespoken. wordpress.com.

The training is required for new volunteers.

The first of three sessions is set for Saturday, Dec. 3, at the Hatfield Marine Science For more information, call
