“We have a diverse senior population in this community and we hope the Boomer and Senior Expo offers new and creative ways to meet the needs of these residents,” said Siuslaw News General Manager Jenna Bartlett. “We have programs for active seniors who are looking for everything from new fitness activities to financial services, or information and tips for those who need assistance getting around safely and affordably.”

The expo includes a diverse range of exhibitors, entertainment and educational seminars with the goal of helping the 50-plus demographic manage and enhance all aspects of their lives.

Starting at 1 p.m., BJ’s Ice Cream is dishing up free scoops while supplies last.

“We invite you to visit more than 30 booths of services,” Bartlett said.

Come spend the day and learn how various businesses can help anyone make the most of their retirement years.
