A WEEKLY FISHING REPORT FOR THE LOCAL REGION

www.dfw.state.or.us/RR

MID COAST LAKES:
Rainbow trout stocking is complete along the mid coast. Holdover trout will be available in most lakes through the summer. Fishing for the various warm water fish species is good this time of year. There are numerous lakes in the Florence area that can provide good opportunity.

SIUSLAW RIVER:
Cutthroat, Chinook
The Siuslaw River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. Fishing is fair. Trolling herring in the lower bay is an effective technique. Eggs and bobber can be productive in the upper bay and river as the season progresses.

For cutthroat trout, casting small spinners, spoons or fly fishing streamers or dry flies can be very effective.

Angling for all species in streams above tidewater is open. Casting small spinners, spoons or fly fishing streamers or dry flies can be very effective.

ALSEA RIVER:
Cutthroat, Chinook
The Alsea River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. Fishing is fair. There are fish that have migrated to the upper bay. Trolling herring in the lower bay is an effective technique. Eggs and bobber can be productive in the upper bay and river as the season progresses.

SALMON RIVER:
Cutthroat, Chinook

Siuslaw senior Celie Mans approaches the finish to win the girls race at Thursday’s Far West district meet.

Mans keeps title as Lady Viks advance to state

Viking boys’ team narrowly misses return to state.

Under the threat of rain, Viking senior Celie Mans proved to be an even bigger threat during Thursday’s Far West League district meet at Tugman State Park, where she retained the league crown a full 30 seconds ahead of second place.

“I wanted to give a good effort, and Jasmine (Chavez) pushed me the first half,” Mans said after finishing the 5,000-meter race in 18 minutes, 45.67 seconds. Not a personal best, but more more than enough to secure the title. “I ran slower than last year, but the conditions made it slower.

“It was more important to run smart than run fast.”

Despite that, the team’s other four finishers each ran either a personal

PTA Color-a-Thon 5K, Fitness Fair set for Nov. 5

The Color-a-Thon 5k walk/run and Fall Fitness Fair are just around the corner on Saturday, Nov. 5.

Hosted by the Florence Community PTA, the Color-a-Thon 5K is a fundraising run/walk that begins at 9 a.m., starting and ending at Siuslaw Middle School.

Participants will move through a 5K course while being engulfed in clouds of vibrant, non-toxic color, emerging looking as if they’ve just burst through a rainbow.

This is the first year for the Color-a-Thon fundraiser, and the event is open to both students and community members.

Registration packets are available for pickup at the Siuslaw Elementary School office or Coastal Fitness.

Registration can also be completed online at www.shop.schoolathon.org/184253.

Day-of registration will also be available for participants from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. at the middle school.

Adult registration for the 5K is $30 and includes an event T-shirt while

Lady Viks host state volleyball playoff today

By NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

After a tune-up match Tuesday against Reedsport, where the Vikings swept the Braves 3-0, Siuslaw will host round two of the 4A state volleyball playoffs today at Glenn Butler Court.

The Lady Vikings will take on No. 9-seed Tillamook from the Cowapa League, which finished the season ranked fifth in the state by the Oregon School Athletics Association (OSAA).

Seeded at No. 8, Siuslaw will take on the Cheesemakers at 1 p.m. for a chance to advance to the quarterfinals next week.

“We just need to play our game and not worry who is

Arlen means pledge or oath in Gaelic. It fits Arlen’s regal personality. He does everything in a stately fashion and rules his kingdom in a gracious manner. We always expect to see him some morning wearing a crown and royal robes atop his cat tower throne. He is a charmer and would love to rule your castle!

Looking for Love

Misty I am an independent soul with a lot of fluff. I prefer to get to know you first before we get cozy. Little people are too busy for me, I like quiet adults with a lot of time and patience. I hope you will give me the chance to charm you! Did I mention I am very glamorous too?!
