

Senior & Boomer Expo, Wellness Fair draw record turnouts

PHOTOS BY MARK BRENNAN/SIUSLAW NEWS

Last Thursday, hundreds turned out for the 5th annual Good Life Boomer & Senior Expo sponsored by Siuslaw News and held at the Florence Events Center, along with the Wellness Fair, sponsored by Three Rivers Casino Resort. A free shuttle service between the two events provided visitors to experience everything from Zumba classes and safety information to a healthy cook-off and culinary choices for a halthy lifestyle.

Twin Lakes Store collecting for teens

The Twin Lakes Store has once again begun fundraising for its annual Teen Giving Tree and is asking the community for donations of produce and fruit. One hundred percent of the proceeds are used to buy Christmas presents for the teens in the north lakes neighborhood.

“Gleaning the local gardens is a wonderful way to raise money for our Teens,” said Vicki Ambrosio, owner of Twin Lakes Store. Tomatoes, tomatillos, beans, zucchini, apples and more have been available from time to time. However, apples — including asian apples — are all that is currently available. Twin Lakes Store is located three miles North of Florence on Highway 101, near Sutton Lake. Donations can be dropped off during business hours, seven days a week, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. For more information, call 541-997-3021.

Artists can ‘Hang It All’ at the Library

November is “Hang It All” month at Siuslaw Public Library. This non-juried public art display is open to all, including professional, amateur and even those newly-inspired by last month’s demARTs event at the library.

There are just a few requirements to follow to be part of this popular event.

All entries must be hand-delivered to the main library’s Bromley Room in Florence on Tuesday, Nov. 1, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. One entry is allowed per person.

Unfortunately, shipped items cannot be accepted. Entries must be available for public display from Nov. 1 to Nov. 30 and need to be picked up Nov. 30 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

All mediums are welcome. Two-dimensional items (paintings, photos, etc.) must be framed and wired for hanging. The library is unable to hang items with sawtooth hangars but can help with wire hangars at drop off time if needed.

The size of two-dimensional entries cannot exceed 38 inches by 38 inches square. Any three-dimensional submissions (pottery, altered books, fiber arts, etc.) will be displayed in the lobby display case and can be up to 12 inches deep and 12 inches by 24 inches (length/height) in order to fit the display area.

Bring your favorite piece, any medium, to this month-long eclectic public art display.

Hundreds will view this art show and any entrant can win the Bob Kutsch award for Best in Show as selected by the Siuslaw Public Library Art Committee.

Also, one artist will be awarded the “People’s Choice Award.”

This award is selected by the community. Everyone can vote once a day for his or her favorite piece. So, even if you are not an entrant, you can participate in this popular art event with your vote.

Information about the 24th “Hang It All” is available at the library in Florence and Mapleton, on the library’s website at www.siuslawlibrary.org, or by calling the library at 541-997-3132.

"I am impressed by Rick Brissenden's almost 20 years of service to the people of Florence as their Municipal Judge," Governor Brown said. "I know he will bring the same long-established integrity and conscientious decision making to his new role – based in the very same courtroom – as well"
