He is survived by his children: Bob, Brad, Mark, Robin and Shane Saxon; and his brothers and sisters: Cecil, Don, Sandy and Sharon.

A memorial service was held at the Reedsport Moose Lodge on Saturday, Oct. 29.

MEAD—Daniel L. Mead, 64, of Florence, passed away

Oct. 19, 2016, from bone cancer.

He was born March 13, 1952, to Lois Robetson and Garland Mead. He graduated from Siuslaw High School, in 1970 and married Debbie (Berry) Mead.

Together, they had three children: Daniel Jr. (Rylyn), Johnathon and Jennifer Mead, who survive him. He is also survived by two grandchildren, Lincoln and Cheyene; his sisters Donna Overton (Brian) and Dianne Laloli (John), and brother Duane Robertson (Mary).

Dan joined his brother Dennis, his sister Gayle, his father Gary, stepfather Morrie, niece Tasha and great niece Kholie in Heaven.

Dan enjoyed camping with his family, playing Farmville with many freinds, and helping anyone he could.

He served in the U.S. Navy for several years and became a TV repairman.

LEFF—Laura Bell Leff, young at 87, of Florence, passed away Thursday, Sept. 22, 2016.

Laura was born April 22, 1929, to Robert and Viletta Hill of Eugene, who settled to Oregon from Oklahoma. Laura labored as a waitress before becoming a devoted wife and dedicated mother.

In 1948, Laura Hill was married to a logger, Forrest Leff, and together they raised four children: Vicky, Randy, Karen and Scott.

Laura was sadly preceded in rest by Forrest; Randy and Karen, all of whom are dearly missed. Laura leaves a long legacy of family: four grandchildren: Trent, Cherry, Eric and Marc; along with 10 great-grandchildren.

Laura was "Mom" to many more than just her own, and we couldn't ask for a better example of what being a mom really was about.
