Beverly Mason

Beverly is survived by her husband, three children, seven grandchildren and one great-grandson. She loved Florence and the Oregon coast, having traveled extensively and agreeing with her husband that here was where she wanted to remain.

She was a sweet woman loved by those who knew her and will be missed by everyone whose life she touched.

At her request private cremational rites were held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

BURKE—Longtime Florence resident Henrietta "Chris" Burke passed away at her home Nov. 1, 2016.

Henrietta Burke

Chris was born Nov. 19, 1931, near Stanwood, Wash., to Ole and Mary Christoferson.

After graduating from high school in 1950, she moved to Seattle and worked as a telephone operator.

While in Seattle, she met her future husband Virgil Burke. They were married Oct. 5, 1951, and had four children.

The family moved from Washington to Northern California for couple of years then to Florence after losing their home to a flood. Chris and Virgil raised their children in Florence and during part of that time she worked for International Paper.

Chris and Virgil were active in the Elks and Moose lodges and all of their children's many activities.

Upon the loss of Virgil in 1990, Chris retired and spent many hours playing cards and socializing with her friends at the Florence Senior Center.

She also enjoyed her flowers and yard. Her greatest enjoyment was spending time with her family, sharing many laughs over dinners followed by their famous poker games.

Chris had an amazing sense of humor, which remained active until her passing.

Chris was preceded in death by her parents, husband and brother, Orville Christoferson.

She is survived by her four children and their spouses: Christie and Bill Wilson, Jack and Theresa Burke, Dave and Diane Burke and Ron and Lori Burke; she is also survived by five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, her sister Grace Borland, brother Kennedy Christoferson and many nieces and nephews.

At Chris's request, no services will be held. Donations in her memory can be made to the Florence Senior Center, 1570 Kingwood St., Florence, Ore., 97439.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
