

Shoulder to Shoulder for Generations

World War I

“American boys are going to France. We must go with them.”

– *Evangeline Booth, National Commander
The Salvation Army, U.S. 1917*

1941 – The Salvation Army becomes one of six founding organizations of the USO.

World War II – The Salvation Army continues to support troops on the front lines and at home.

Serving Today's Veterans

The Salvation Army's services have grown to meet the needs of veterans coming home from war and struggling to fit back into everyday life.

Programs serve thousands of veterans addressing a complex set of challenges:

- Homelessness
- Low employment
- Chronic physical and mental problems
- Substance abuse
