

BOND R. HANSON

SP4, U.S. Army
1968-1970

Tours of Duty: Vietnam, Mobile Riverine Force

ROBERT F. HARDESTY

F1/c, U.S. Naval Reserve
1944-1946

Tours of Duty: Assigned to the Submarine
USS Pompon SS267 in Guam

RICHARD D. HARDWICK

SP-3, U.S. Army
(AMM Supply Spec)
1952-1954
Tours of Duty: Korea
1953-1954
His father, major Roy
Hardwick, served in Korea at the same time
as he did

ELDON L. "PAT" HARROUN

Sgt., U.S. Army
1941-1946
Tours of Duty:
Philippines, Japan, New
Guinea, Biak Island
He started out as a medic but was transferred to the 4449 Truck
Co. as a transportation

driver. Although close enough to get a wheel blown off his truck once, he was never in the "heat" of the battles. He brought up the rear

with fresh supplies of food, clothing, guns,
ammo and soldiers.

IRA J. HASKETT JR.

Sgt., U.S. Armed Forces

RALPH PALMER HATCH

1st Class Petty Officer,
U.S. Navy
Tours of Duty: Iwo Jima

DAVID F. HAYDTER

U.S. Air Force
1996-2001

Tours of Duty: 5-1/2 years as an Air Force
Survival Instructor; Foreign Service Specialist with the U.S. State Dept. American Embassy,
Sofia, Bulgaria

SHIRLEY E. HEERMANS

W.S.C.G.R. SPAR
Petty Officer Yeoman
2C

1944-1945

Tours of Duty: Seattle,
Wash.

Worked in radio/telephone, engineering and
personnel; sold war

bonds with Lt. Commander Buddy Ebsen on the navy destroyer Laffey, the most damaged ship by the enemy Japanese; led guided tours to see a Kamikaze plane embedded in the ships bulkhead

EUGENE R. HENDERSON

Specialist 1st Class,
U.S. Army
Tours of Duty: Vietnam,
Germany, Fort Ord, the
Presidio, and Madigan
Hospital in California.
Awarded Bronze Star, a
Silver Star, an Army
Commendation Medal

with Oak Leaf Good Conduct Medal

KENNETH P. HENDERSON

1st Lieutenant, U.S.
Army Artillery
1964-1966

Tours of Duty: Republic
of Korea; Ft. Sill, OK;
Ft. Riley, KS; Ft. Lewis,
WA.

7th Inf. Div. Divarty HQ
BTR-7 Commander.

G.R. (RICH) HATTON

U.S. Navy
Tours of Duty: Pacific,
Atlantic, Cuba, Panama,
Pearl Harbor survivor

DOROTHY M. HENDERSON

E7, U.S. Army
1964-1984

Tours of Duty: Germany,
Texas, Washington

MIKE HERBERT

Lt., U.S. Navy
1963-1972

Tours of Duty: USS
Mount Katmai, USS
Montrose, OinC Navy,
Small Arms Training
Camp Pendleton, OinC
YRBM, Vietnam, OinC
Company Commander
School, San Diego

Volunteers Needed

The Kiwanis Club of Florence is again serving Thanksgiving dinner to the Florence community. This year they are expecting to serve 600 dinners! Dinner is served noon – 2:00 at the Elks Lodge on 12th Street and is free to all. Anyone interested in volunteering to help please contact Pam Thompson prior to the event at panda92111@live.com or Jean Murphey at 541-997-3455.

