Siuslaw Watershed Council receives $260,837 grant

ASHLAND – The Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board (OWEB) selected the Siuslaw Watershed Council to receive a Salmon License Plate grant at its October Board Meeting.

Salmon License Plate revenues are generated from the extra fee Oregonians pay when they purchase Salmon Plates for their vehicles.

The grant, "Walker Creek Fish Passage Improvement," totals $260,837 and will replace an undersized and failing culvert on Walker Creek in the Siuslaw watershed and restore coho salmon passage to 1.5 miles of high-quality spawning and rearing habitat in

Lane County. "This project is a great investment of the state's Salmon License Plate dollars," said Meta Loftsgaarden, OWEB's executive director. "This investment benefits coho salmon and other aquatic species, while also supporting the local natural resource economy."

In addition to the Walker Creek project, the OWEB Board selected three other projects to be awarded Salmon License Plate funding:

- Butcherknife Creek Culvert Replacement — Applegate Partnership (Josephine County): a $153,731 project to replace a fish passage barrier culvert with a 14x36-foot bridge on Butcherknife Creek, a tributary to Waters Creek in the Applegate River watershed, which will restore access to more than 2.5 miles of cool water, "high value" Coho

- Fishers Bend Phase II Side Channel Restoration — Clackamas River Basin Council (Clackamas County): a $186,854 multi-stakeholder cooperative effort to create off-channel habitat for threatened salmonids on the lower Clackamas River, which is a priority migration corridor and rearing habitat for Endangered Species Act-listed salmon and steelhead;

- Middle Crabtree and Upper Thomas Creek Riparian Restoration — South Santiam Watershed Council (Linn County): a $148,834 project to restore native vegetation on 25 acres adjacent to two South Santiam River tributaries that are important spawning and rearing habitat for Endangered Species Act-listed spring Chinook Salmon and winter steelhead, which will benefit water quality in addition to improving fish habitat.

Salmon License Plate income totaled $250,000 for the grant cycle, so each of the identified projects is only partially funded with license plate revenues.

The rest comes from a combination of Oregon Lottery and federal funding.

In total, the OWEB Board awarded 80 grants totaling $7,371,614 to local organizations statewide to support fish and wildlife habitat and water quality projects using lottery, Salmon License Plate and federal Pacific Coastal Salmon Recovery funding provided by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration at their October meeting.

A listing of all awarded grants is available at: www.oregon.gov/OWEB/GRANTS/docs/2016-Board-Awards.pdf.
