

Backstreet Gallery welcomes newest member

Backstreet Gallery recently approved the addition of its latest member, Susan Thomas.

Thomas' vibrant pastels cover a variety of subject matter with birds a definite favorite. Pastels allow her to show her talent using both subtle pastel tones and brilliant colors to create her dynamic pieces.

Born in Surrey, England, Thomas came to the United States in 1980. In Florida, she led a graphic arts department for an advertising agency.

After a career in advertising and marketing, she moved to Oregon, where she met the right man. They married in 1995 and have one daughter.

the ocean, they started with a vacation home in Cannon Beach. They then lived in Lake Oswego before moving to Florence two months ago.

Now a member of Backstreet Gallery and Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA), Thomas has also exhibited her work in Lake Oswego, Gearhart, Seaside and Cannon Beach.

She loves walking the beach where she says, "I am inspired by the constant changes in the skies, which reflect on our beautiful landscape. I feel truly privileged to live in this community."

Backstreet Gallery, 1421 Bay St. is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Come see Thomas' work along with art from more than 20 other artists on display in the gallery.

Annual Christmas Bazaar at Foursquare Church

The Faith Fellowship of Foursquare Church will be hosting a Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, Dec. 3, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Presented by the Fellowship's Women's Ministry, the bazaar will have one-of-a-kind handcrafted gifts, including driftwood wall art, burlap wall hangings, candle holders, holiday plates, tile coasters, Christmas decorations and more.

There will also be baked goods on decorative cellophane-wrapped plates and platters for gift giving.

Foursquare Church is at 1624 Highway 101, next to A&W.
