Actors invited to audition for LRP's 'Moon Over Buffalo'

Last Resort Players (LRP) will begin auditions for Ken Ludwig's "Moon Over Buffalo" Saturday, Dec. 17, and Sunday, Dec. 18, from 1 to 4 p.m. at Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St.

In the madcap comedy tradition of "Lend me a Tenor," the hilarious "Moon Over Buffalo" centers on George and Charlotte Hay, fading stars of the 1950s. At the moment, they are playing two shows in rep in Buffalo, New York, with five actors.

On the brink of a disastrous split-up caused by George's dalliance with a young ingenue, they receive word that they might just have one last shot at stardom: Frank Capra is coming to town to see their matinee, and if likes what he sees, he might cast them in his movie remake of "The Scarlet Pimpernel."

Unfortunately for George and Charlotte, everything that could go wrong does go wrong, abetted by a visit from their daughter's clueless fiancé and hilarious uncertainty about which play they are actually performing, caused by Charlotte's deaf old stage-manager mother who hates every bone in George's body.

Four men, stage ages 20 to 60 years old, and four women, stage ages 20 to 70 years old, are needed. LRP seeks an ensemble cast, with a strong leading man and woman.

There will be parts for senior actors and tech and stage crew inquiries are welcome. "Moon Over Buffalo" rehearsals start Sunday, Jan. 8.

LRP will perform "Moon Over Buffalo" on March 17 through 19 and 24 to 26.

Giving from 1B

Oak Terrace, an affordable housing complex with 48 units, Hensley said.

"Florence has shown that it's a giving community. Last year, from the sale of $1 turkey cutouts in our Florence store, $1,718 was donated in support of holiday food boxes that went to those in need," Hensley said. "This past school year, we also provided about 100 backpacks filled with school supplies to Florence-area schools in hopes of alleviating back-to-school expenses for families."

Those interested in sponsoring a resident or family can contact Hensley at 541-743-7147 or email her at ashely.hensley@sudp.us.
