STUDENTS SUBMIT 'RECYCLED' ART ENTRIES

MARK BRENNAN/SIUSLAW NEWS

Resto-Arts owner Tamara Pohlman (center) and Siuslaw High School instructors Kim Pickell (left) and Tres Tucker (right) start the judging for the first Repurposed Art Competition, sponsored by Resto-Arts on Bay Street in Historic Old Town Florence. Ten students submitted to the competition open to Siuslaw High School students. The top three entries will receive cash prizes totalling $600 and will be for sale at Resto-Arts.

Acoustic concert plays at Siuslaw library today

David Helfand and Justin Lader, a multi-talented acoustical team, will perform their original eclectic mix of music on Saturday, Dec. 3, at 2 p.m. in the Bromley Room at the Siuslaw Public Library.

Helfand and Lader have been touring around the Pacific Northwest and northern California the last few years sharing their signature blend of music at coffeehouses, festivals (including the Eugene Irish Festival), libraries, private homes and the Lane ESD Planetarium.

Their music has been called "an eclectic blend of original multi-cultural inspired music of passion and transcendence with inspirations from the Celtic lands, the Middle East, pentatonic meditation music, space music and progressive rock."

Helfand himself is a talented instrumentalist who composes as well as plays the Celtic harp, mandocello, octave mandolin, guitar and keyboards.

Lader, who teaches the violin and viola, also composes and is an accomplished violist.

To date, the duo has released three albums: acoustic works of harp and viola titled "After the Rain" (2012); "From a Distant Land" (2013), which embraces the spirit of Celtic music; and, most recently, a sacred journey through space searching for lost loved ones in "Through the Portal" (2016).

Prior to collaborating with Lader on these three albums, Helfand recorded six albums both as a solo artist and with ensembles.

Lader has also collaborated on albums with Jake McNeillie and Albert Howell.

David Macdonald of White Horse Coffee and Tea in Sutherlin, Ore., said of Helfand, "His style is contemporary, but rooted in ancient values and connections, resonating the theme of change moving in an outward spiral with an orbit around tradition and ancestral heritage. His work is beautiful. This is what he aims to project."
