Jazz Kings to perform holiday favorites

A night of Christmas song favorites will take place Wednesday, Dec. 14, at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St., when Jesse Cloninger and the Emerald City Jazz Kings perform their ninth annual Christmas concert.

Cloninger promises to bring back all the holiday favorites, from "White Christmas," "The Christmas Song," "I'll Be Home For Christmas" and "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas," to "Button Up Your Overcoat" and "Mele Kalikimaka," along with a fine selection of sacred and traditional songs, including "O'

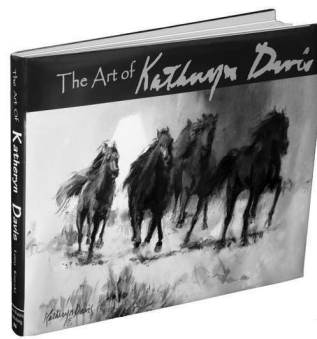

Holy Night" and "Silent Night."

As usual, make sure you've spruced up your singing chops to join in on some good old-fashioned carol sing-alongs.

An evening for the entire family not to be missed.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tickets can be reserved for $30 (or $15 for youth high school age and younger) by calling the FEC at 541-997-1994 or online at www.eventcenter.org.

Spirituali-Tea sings carols

On Monday, Dec. 12, at 6:30 p.m. everyone is invited to join a group of friends from varied spiritual paths to sing holiday carols.

The Baha'i Writings say "We testify that when He came into the world, He shed the splendor of his glory upon all created things. Through him the leper recovered from the leprosy of perversity and ignorance. Through him, the unchaste and wayward were healed. Through his power, born of almighty god, the eyes of the blind were opened, and the soul of the sinner sanctified."

"We bear witness that through the power of the word of god every leper was cleansed, every sickness was healed, every human infirmity was banished. He it is who purified the world. Blessed is the man who, with a face beaming with light, hath turned towards him."

The main goal of the Baha'i Faith will always center around one ultimate aim, the peaceful unification of the entire human race.

The gathering will end at 8 p.m. with prayers for the requests left in the Prayer Pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse and those shared by the group.

The Heintz home is located at 875 Seventh St.
