Siuslaw had both of its varsity teams on the road at Harrisburg over the weekend, taking on Junction City and Harrisburg at the Eagles' nest.

On Friday, despite a career-high 18 points from senior Brittany Long, single-digit scoring from the rest of Siuslaw's roster allowed Junction City to get — and keep — the advantage en route to a 52-38 win.

The loss moved Siuslaw into consolation play on Saturday at Harrisburg, Against Harrisburg, Siuslaw had three players score in double figures, including 15 points from senior guard Destinie Tatum, 11 points from Long and 10 points from sophomore Alyssa Richards.

The win was the Lady Viks' first win of the season (1-4), and also its most balanced scoring performance.

In addition to Tatum's team-high scoring, she also led Siuslaw off the glass with 12 boards, along with 3 steals and 3 assists.

Long had 5 assists and 5 rebounds to go with 3 steals and the Lady Viks' only 3-point shot.

Richards had 8 rebounds and 1 steal.

On Sunday, Holiday Bowl played host to 12 of the best teams in Siuslaw's district as the Vikings faced teams from Marshfield, North Bend, Springfield, Cottage Grove, Thurston and others.

After 20 baker games, the Vikings qualified for the final four with a second-place seed coming from the preliminaries. The Vikings defeated third-seed Cottage Grove in the quarterfinals before holding on to beat Willamette by a mere 4 pins to clench the tournament title.

"It was a total team effort," said Dusty Anderson, who oversees the program and coaches the girls team.

That same day, the varsity 2 boys team competed at Reedsport, where it

Trailing by 7 in the second period, junior Dominic Wells took control of the paint and dominated the glass before the half, posting 8 points to end the quarter and secure a 26-25 lead at the half.

At the Army Strong Coast Classic in North Bend over the weekend, junior 120-pounder Ricky Huff had Siuslaw's top finish on the mats after landing fourth at the 30-team invitational.

Huff defeated Kaleb Murphy of Grants Pass 15-3 in the quarterfinals, but was pinned in the semifinals by top-seeded Legend Lamer of Crescent Valley.

After pinning Granth Hunter of Crater (4:56), Huff advanced to consolation in the match for third place.

Huff battled Roseburg's Thomas Spence, who eventually pinned Huff with just 43 second remaining in the third round.

Siuslaw senior Kainan Lane went 1-3 Saturday, pinning Kaimana Wa'a of Crescent Valley in 3:23 during the quarterfinals of the 285-pound division.

Unfortunately, Lane was pinned in each of his next three matches before finishing sixth overall.

Fellow Siuslaw senior Scott Simmons placed sixth after two losses on Saturday.
