Except during the nine months before he draws his first breath, no man manages his affairs as well as a tree does.
—George Bernard Shaw

Don't just dream about grandiose acts of doing good. Every day do small ones, that add up over time to positive patterns.
—Marian Wright Edelman

Forget conventionalisms; forget what the world thinks of you stepping out of your place; think your best thoughts, speak your best words, work your best works, looking to your own conscience for approval.
—Susan B. Anthony

The person who gets the farthest is usually the one who is willing to do and dare. The sure-thing boat never gets far from shore.
—Dale Carnegie

You don't make progress by standing on the sidelines, whimpering and complaining. You make progress by implementing ideas.
—Shirley Chisholm
