

Fishing from 1B

SIUSLAW RIVER: Chinook
The Siuslaw River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. Fishing is slow.
Trotting herring in the lower bay is an effective technique. Eggs and bobber can be productive in the upper bay and river.

ALSEA RIVER AND BAY: Chinook, steelhead
The Alsea River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. Fishing is slow. Fish are throughout the bay and river. Eggs and bobber can be productive in the upper bay and river as the season progresses.

Steelhead fishing is open. Fish are entering the mainstem with the first entering steelhead near the town of Alsea. Casting spinners, drifting bait or using a bobber and jig can be effective.
• Open for hatchery steelhead through Dec. 31.
• No fishing from a floating device upstream from Mill Creek.

SALMON RIVER: Chinook
The Salmon River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. The run is near the end but a few fish are still entering the system.
Trotting herring in the lower bay is an effective technique. Eggs and bobber can be productive in the upper bay and river as the season progresses. Parking can be limited at Knight Park during the fall salmon return. Anglers are reminded that from Knight Park boat ramp to Sulphur Creek through Dec. 31, angling is restricted to single point hook metal lures, fly angling, or salmon bobber angling.

SILETZ RIVER: Steelhead, Chinook
The Siletz River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. Fishing is slow.
Fish are throughout the bay and river. Trotting herring in the lower bay is an effective technique. Eggs and bobber drifting eggs can be productive in the upper bay and river as the season progresses.

Consult the regulations for changes in deadline locations through the season.
Steelhead fishing is slow. Casting spinners, drifting bait or using a bobber and jig can be effective. For cutthroat trout, casting small spinners, spoons or fly fishing streamers or dry flies can be very effective.
WILSON RIVER: Chinook
Fall Chinook fishing is fair on the Wilson River. The Wilson has fished well for fall Chinook this season, and although things will probably start to slow down toward the end of the month, there are still some good fish coming in.

Keep an eye on the weather and River conditions. All of the usual techniques, such as bobber fishing, divers and bait, and back bouncing should be effective.
Although it's still a little early, Thanksgiving is time to start thinking about winter steelhead on the lower Wilson. This basin has some early returning hatchery fish and they should start trickling in towards the end of the month.
YAQUINA RIVER: Chinook
The Yaquina River and bay is open for Chinook salmon. Fishing is slow. Trotting herring in the lower bay is an effective technique.

Eggs and bobber can be productive in the upper bay and river as the season progresses.
COOS COUNTY LAKES AND PONDS: Trout
Rainbow trout were stocked in Upper Empire, Bradley, Saunders, Powers and Butterfield lakes last month.
Anglers have been catching lots of trout on Powerbait, flies, or by trolling spinners. This was the last stocking of these lakes until the spring.
Trout anglers are also catching trout in Eel and Tenmile lakes. Trotting wedding ring spinners tipped with a night-crawler has been really effective.
