

THE RECORD

OBITUARY

DANIELSON — Floyd Danielson, 91, of Swisshome, passed away Dec. 16, 2016, in Springfield, Ore.

Floyd Danielson
Floyd Danielson married Donna Olson in 1944.

Floyd was born Nov. 26, 1925, in Seely, Wisc., the son of Carl Danielson and Cornelia Galtrud. He married Helen Roth of Florence in 1970, and she preceded him in death in 2011. In 1950, Floyd moved his family from Wisconsin to Swisshome, Ore., and built a home that he would live in for the next 65 years.

An amputee as a result of a farming accident in Wisconsin, Floyd was lured to Oregon by family that had moved west to work in the lumber industry.

Floyd enjoyed years of mill work but most of all he enjoyed showing others that he could do anything they could, and of course, "always better."

He enjoyed traveling around the world to visit his children, but most of all he enjoyed his time as the self-proclaimed Mayor of "Gobblers Knob," his home and farm.

Floyd was preceded in death by his brother Harley, killed in action during WWII; and his grandson, Jim Ray Stephens.

He is survived by brothers: Norman of Boyceville, Wisconsin; Glen of Santa Fe, New Mexico; and Edgar of Harrisburg, Ore.; his children Michael Danielson (Dawn) of Eugene, Polly Noble of Cottage Grove, Kathy Danielson (Jim) of Portland, Julie Stephens (Curt) of Sweet Home, and John Danielson of Palm Springs; six grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews and many friends.

A service will be held Wednesday, Dec. 28, at 1 p.m., at Major Family Funeral Home, 112 North A St., in Springfield, Ore.

A reception to follow. Burial will take place at Mapleton Pioneer Cemetery at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, family requests memorials be given in Floyd's name to the Swisshome Volunteer Fire Department, P.O. Box 10, Swisshome, OR 97480.

KENT — Brandon Kent LeVesque, formerly of Mapleton, passed away Dec. 18, 2016, in Reedsport.

Brandon was born in Eugene, Ore., Nov. 4, 1966, and graduated from Mapleton High School.

He worked for Davidson Industries and was a welder in Eugene. He was an avid hunter and enjoyed salmon fishing. He was a talented artist and enjoyed playing the keyboard and guitar.

Brandon is survived by his parents, Patrick and Cheryl LeVesque, of Reedsport; his son Tyler LeVesque, of Portland; his sisters Sandi Kobilansky of Gold Canyon, Ariz., and Aimee Fierros of Apache Junction, Ariz.

A memorial service will be held at the Mapleton Grange on Saturday, Jan. 7, 2017, at 3 p.m.

Florence police to hold extra DUII enforcement

The Florence Police Department has received grant funding to support additional DUII enforcement during the Christmas and New Year's holiday period, Dec. 15 through Jan. 1.

High visibility enforcement, accomplished by increasing the number of officers on the streets aggressively seeking out impaired drivers, is designed to deter people from driving while intoxicated or otherwise impaired.

For more information, contact the Florence Police Department at 541-997-3515.

Police department warns of school advertising scam

The Florence Police Department has become aware of multiple businesses and or residents in the Florence area being contacted by a male who identifies himself as "James" who is offering to sell or renew advertising space in Siuslaw athletic events programs or calendars. Varying amounts have been requested ranging from $99 to $129.

Some of these calls have shown up as unidentified caller, or with a local number of 541-997-2200, which is not a current Florence phone. Siuslaw schools have advised the Florence Police Department that this is not legitimate solicitation activity.

Some who have been contacted have been deterred from making payments directly to the school, and instead this individual asks to send an invoice.

Citizens are reminded to be diligent whenever solicited for funds over the phone or via other electronic means.

Per Siuslaw School District staff, Siuslaw High School does not take any payments for any products or services over the phone, nor do they have the ability to accept credit card payments.

Legitimate payments for services such as being discussed would have to be made by check or cash and checks would be requested to be payable to "Siuslaw High School" or SHS.

Siuslaw High School advises that if you have any questions about a letter or a phone call you have received from someone claiming to be representing Siuslaw High School, call 541-997-3448 to verify the person making contact and the project they are promoting.

FRAA to host Winter Artisan Fair

The 15th annual Winter Music Artisan Fair will be a two-day event, Saturday, Jan. 14, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, Jan. 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This is a must-see event for the weekend and admission to the Artisan Fair is free.

This year, the Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) will be the event committee for the Artisan Fair.

There will be artisans, both local and regional, who will come and demonstrate their creative talents and bring their latest creations.

The artisans will vary from wood craft to herbs; knit, crochet and fiber creations to ward off the winter's chill; artwork to stir the imagination and tastings to warm the heart.

For more information, contact Claudia Brown, event chair, at 541-902-1933.
