Joe Trio will be the next performance presented in the SEAcost 2017 season.

Linda Gargis, SEA board vice-president, said, “Since its beginning 36 years ago, SEAcost Entertainment has brought top quality performers to Florence audiences.”

And this season continues Saturday, Jan. 21, at 7 p.m., when The Joe Trio will entertain with humor, versatility and wit.

The three tremendously musical, classically trained players (piano, cello and violin) will bring all a fresh appreciation for the standard concert repertoire (think “Beethoven meets The Pink Panther”) while entertaining the audience with humor and spontaneity.

The season is far from over.

Celebrate Mardi Gras a couple of days early with “Bria Skonberg’s New Orleans Jazz Band” during a Sunday afternoon tea dance

Feb. 26 at 4 p.m.

Skonberg is a specialist in classic American hot jazz. She leads her band, wails on the trumpet, and beautifully vocalizes jazz standards with energy and pizzazz.

SEA is providing Florence fans of brass with a much-needed dose of energy with the Dallas Brass on Wednesday, March 29, at 7 p.m.

The quintet masters all aspects of the brass repertoire: classical, Dixieland, swing, show tunes and more as they provide a musical travelogue through American instrumental history.

On Wednesday, April 26, at 7 p.m., SEA presents “Barrage 8,” a high-energy dose of modern string instruments and movement.

Their innovative stage performance blends wonderfully with their musical talent — and strings like you have never heard them before.

On Wednesday, May 24, at 7 p.m., it will be an incomparable night for keyboard fans: dueling pianos when “The Piano Caméléons” will ring out the SEA season on two grand pianos, expertly manned by a pair of virtuoso pianists.

They revisit great classic pieces with interpretations touched by traditional jazz, world beat and other influences.

It will be a spectacle for the eyes, ears and soul.

Tickets can be purchased at the Florence Events Center box office, 715 Quince St., or by phone at 541-997-1994 during regular business hours.
