

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

WILEY—Leonard Dixon Wiley, 74, passed away Monday, Nov. 21, 2016, in Florence, after a few years of struggling with heart issues and kidney failure.

Leonard Wiley

Leonard was born Feb. 3, 1942, in Los Angeles, Calif., to Michael and Maggie Wiley.

In 1977, he married Suzanne Wiley and, together, they raised their son Michael Wiley in Pomona, Calif.

Leonard was also a proud U.S. Marine and served two tours in the Vietnam War.

Leonard is survived by his wife, Suzanne Wiley; his son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Jamie Wiley; his grandchildren: Aaliyah and Andrew Wiley; and his son and daughter-in-law, Aaron and Erleigh Wiley.

Memorial services will be held at Burns's Riverside Chapel on Saturday, Jan. 14, at 3 p.m.

JACKSON—Alline May (McBryde) Jackson, 91, died Dec. 16, 2016, in Florence.

The daughter of William D. McBryde and Lillie Bell Dilbeck, she was born June 16, 1925, in Holdenville, Okla.

She worked as a waitress for many years, working at the Timber Inn, where she was loved by her many customers.

Then for the last 10 years she was employed as a realtor, retiring in 1987.

She loved flowers and gardening and could make something grow out of nothing. She was famous for her plant sales, and for her good home cooking, particularly her pecan pies.

"Ba Ba" was dearly loved and will be deeply missed.

Her husband of 40 years, Thomas "TJ" Jackson, died Jan. 5, 2017, in Florence.

Survivors include one son, Randall "Randy" (Linda) Quillin; a sister, Shirley Arndt of Ontario, Ore.; eight grandchildren: Tim Holmes, Mike Holmes, Tammy Clements, Kristene Quillin Stephens, Monte Quillin, Tajee Pugh, Richard Quillin and Lisa Gray; 15 great-grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; six step great-great-grandchildren; a step-daughter, Janet Brewer; along with numerous nieces, nephews and cousins and wonderful friends.

Her son, Sam A. Quillin, and daughter, Carlena A. Holmes, preceded her in death, as did her brothers and sisters:

Matthew McBryde, Marvin McBryde, Raymond McBride, Ralph McBryde, Arthur McBride, Jeanette Forester and Frank Bailey.

A gathering for family and friends will be held at noon on Saturday, Jan. 14, in Mapleton.

She has been interred with other family members at Ocean View Memory Gardens, 1525 Ocean Blvd NW, in Coos Bay.

HOBSON—Kenneth Hobson died at home, surrounded by family, on Jan. 5, 2017.

Born March 12, 1948, in Rockville Centre NY, the oldest son of David and the late Claire Hobson. Ken graduated from St. Francis Academy in Baker in 1966 and from the University of Oregon in 1970. He loved many things in this world: music, photography, sports, card games and the Ducks. But his truest and most-enduring love was for his wife, Charlene, and the family they created together.

Their three sons, Josh, Joel and Greg, grew up in a home filled with thoughtful discussion, passionate play, high expectations and steadfast faith. His belief in a loving God helped shape the way he treated people and informed many of his decisions throughout his life.

Ken spent countless hours capturing life through his camera's lens and had a unique ability to see the beauty in this world. He found extraordinary joy in amassing and sharing his epic vinyl collection. He lived in the moment; whether that meant organizing a living room dance party, holding court with an animated telling of a favorite story, or sharing an inside joke with his grandkids.

Ken worked as a city planner and manager in Baker, Cascade Locks, Newport, Florence and Bend. He took pride in his work and brought the same sensibilities to his occupation that he did to the rest of his life.

He was a man of principle and balance, always striving to understand the perspectives of others, while remaining true to himself.

He is survived by his loving wife of 42 years, Charlene; their sons: Josh (Lauren), Joel and Greg (Lindsay); grandchildren: Meredith, Bryce, Porter and Lincoln; father David; 12 siblings; four sisters-in-law; and many dear family and friends.

A funeral will be held at St. Anthony of Pedua Church in Portland, beginning at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Jan. 14.
