On Jan. 4, Florence residents woke to an unusual sight — snow on the Siuslaw! Officials say as much as 8 inches of snow fell overnight and throughout the morning. Although weekend rain washed the last bits of ice away, here are some shots taken by Siuslaw News staff of this historic snowfall in Old Town Florence.

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD A SNOWMAN?

Western Lane County residents created clever winter displays last Wednesday as snow on the coast closed schools. Principal Michael Harklerode invited Siuslaw Elementary students to send in photos of their snow creations. From gruesome zombies to more traditional examples — even an Oregon duck — here are some examples seen around town.
