After going on a 4-0 run early in the first quarter, the Vikings found themselves with an 8-point deficit entering the second period against the Pirates on Tuesday night at Marshfield.

Siuslaw senior Brogan Cornish breaks Marshfield's press to penetrate the key.

Siuslaw's 2-3-zone defense was effective, holding the Pirates to just 4 points in the second period, with the Vikings posting 5 points to enter the

SIOUSLAW: 28
MARSHFIELD: 79

On the road at Marshfield Tuesday night, the Viking girls basketball team had no answers for the No. 6-ranked Lady Pirates, who had 8-0 runs in both the first and second quarters — the last of which left the Lady Viks with a 32-5 deficit before the end of the first half. Siuslaw seniors Destinie Tatum and Brittany Long, each of whom routinely score in double figures, were held to less than 10 points each — Tatum with 7 and Long with 5.

The Viks also got scoring from seniors Claire Waggoner and Abby Watkins with 4 points each, 3 points from senior Nikki Launius, and two points each from junior Carreina Greenburg and sophomore Alyssa Richards, who suffered an ankle injury in the game and will likely not return to the floor this season.

Marshfield drained four 3-pointers in the final quarter to secure a 79-28 win.

Today, Siuslaw hosts Brookings-Harbor in a rescheduled game from Friday, beginning at 1 p.m.

Sailors lose two on road

BY NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

It was a busy week for the Sailors, who were on the road Tuesday and Thursday before returning to their own hardwood last night. For the girls Tuesday night, it was one of their highest-scoring games of the season. Unfortunately, it wasn't enough to edge out the Lady Lakers, who held on for a 45-31 win.

In the boys' game, the Sailors had a tougher time against the high-pressure Lakers' offense, which took an early lead en route to a lopsided 82-33 win.

Thursday, both teams were back on the road, at Lowell, where the Lady Sailors fell 67-25, and the boys lost 69-24.

Last night's game against Falls City was after press deadlines.

MID COAST LAKES:
Holdover trout will be available in most lakes. Fishing for the various warm water fish species will slow as water temperatures cool. There are numerous lakes in the Florence area that can provide good opportunity.

SIOUSLAW RIVER:
Steelhead

The Siuslaw River and bay is closed to Chinook salmon. Fishing is slow.

The Siuslaw River and Lake Cr. are open for steelhead fishing.

Looking for Love

Lassie is a bonnie 8 yr. old lass - a Scottish fold to be exact. When Lassie first arrived it took her awhile to get comfortable and decide she could trust us. Now she gives us kitty kisses on our hands. Lassie is a sweet girl that talks with a growl, but don't be fooled - that's just her Scottish brogue.
