

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

BURCH—Robert (Bob) M. Burch, 88, passed away peacefully Jan. 18, 2017, while surrounded by family.

Robert Burch

Bob will be remembered by those who knew him as a loving husband, father and grandfather and a really nice guy.

Always ready with a joke and a smile, he was an avid golfer and fisherman. He made time for his family and volunteering.

He leaves behind his loving wife, Mickey, and daughters Karen and Nancy (Ray) and grandson Dylan.

He will be sorely missed.

IHOLTS—Ruth Iholts, 96, of Mapleton, longtime Mapleton resident, passed away in Beaverton, Ore.

Ruth Iholts

She was born in Miles City, Mont., on Feb. 14, 1920. She and her husband, Fred, moved to Mapleton in 1964, when Fred worked at U.S. Plywood, from where he retired and eventually passed away in 1983.

Ruth worked at Siuslaw Bank in Mapleton for 17 years and retired in 1985. She moved to Beaverton in 2011.

She is survived by her four children and their families: Ed Iholts, Beverly Thornburg and Duane Iholts, of Beaverton, and Lonnie Iholts of Florence; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

No funeral service is planned.

Private burial is planned to lay her to rest beside her husband Fred in Eugene.

Arrangements are being held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

GRETH—Roxanne Jean (Heist) Greth, 82, of Florence, passed away Jan. 15, 2017, due to breast cancer.

Roxanne Greth

Born Oct. 14, 1934, in Reading, Pa., she lived a joy-filled life that centered on her love of family, travel, and her husband of 62 years, Wallace Alan Greth Sr.

She attended school in her native Pennsylvania, graduating from Reading Senior High School in 1952.

From there, she attended Stevens College in Columbia, Mo., graduating with an AA degree in 1954.

She was married April 23, 1954, to Wallace Alan Greth in Columbus, Mo. She gave birth to her first two children, Wendy Ann and Janeen Gay, in Nuremberg, Germany, in 1955 and 1956.

Wallace, a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, was stationed at Nuremberg at the time.

The Greth family moved to Lakewood, Calif., in June 1957. Baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints on Feb. 1, 1958, Roxanne was endowed and sealed to her husband on March 21, 1959.

Roxanne and her family moved to Rowland Heights, Calif., in 1962, before relocating to Concord, Calif., in 1974.

Roxanne and Wallace also lived three-and-a-half years in their comfortable RV before settling in Florence.

Roxanne loved traveling across the country in the RV, and also loved to crochet for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She worked 25 years as a supervisor for Pacific Tel & Tel in both northern and southern California.

Roxanne is survived by her husband, Wallace Alan Greth Sr., of Florence; five children: Wendy Ann Manzone of Grants Pass, Ore., Janeen Gay Greth of Bend, Ore., Robin Lee Goncalves of Antioch, Calif., Wallace Alan Greth Jr. of Pleasanton, Calif., and Michael Scott Greth of Brentwood, Calif.; 15 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

A memorial service for Roxanne will be held Saturday, Jan. 28, at 10 a.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 2705 Munsel Lake Rd., at the corner of Munsel Lake and North Fork roads.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations to the American Cancer Society.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

VOLKOFF—Paulette G. Volkoff, 66, of Florence, passed away Jan. 14, 2017.

Arrangements are being held by Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

Volunteers sought for homeless count

Volunteers are needed for Lane County's annual homeless Point in Time Count (PIT).

On Wednesday, Jan. 25, Lane County Human Services, along with its non-profit partners, will conduct a PIT count of people who are homeless in Lane County.

The annual homeless count reaches throughout the community to people sleeping on the streets, vehicles, parks, camps, and other places not designed for human habitation.

Emergency shelter and transitional housing programs designated for people who are homeless are also counted.

The next volunteer training for the count will be Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 3:30 p.m.

For more information contact Pearl Wolfe, supervisor, Lane County Human Services Division, at 541-682-4629.
