

Viks from 1B

said of his team's rally. "They knew exactly what they needed to do to come back, and they executed it well."

In the fourth quarter, both teams traded baskets and leads. With 1:03 remaining on the clock, Hickson sank a pair of freethrows to give the Viks a slim 29-27 lead, only to have the Bruins drain a long 3-pointer for a 1-point lead with 50 seconds left.

An offensive rebound from Reavis with 15 seconds to go put Siuslaw ahead 31-30, but the Bruins countered with a pair of freethrows to move ahead 32-31.

With both teams in the foul bonus, the final seconds went on for another three minutes as players rotated through the charity line, where the Bruins sank the front end of a 1-and-1 to move ahead 37-36 with 2 seconds on the clock.

The second attempt bounced around the rim and off, with senior guard Brogan Cornish nabbing the rebound and getting fouled with less than a second to go.

From the freethrow line, Cornish sank his first shot, tying the game at 37-37, but missed the second attempt.

The Bruins recovered the ball as the buzzer went off, sending the game into overtime.

"We talked about playing every league game like it's our biggest game of the year," said Perry. "And our young men competed like it."

Reavis won the second tipoff, with both teams going scoreless for the first two minutes until a freethrow from Reavis put Siuslaw up by 1 point.

Brandt added two more freethrows with 1:55 left for a 3-point lead. Brookings scored on the return, cutting the Viks' lead to 1 point.

Two key plays from King proved to be the turning point, beginning with a freethrow that put Siuslaw back ahead by 2, then grabbing a steal on the return with 34 seconds remaining.

Moving into a delay offense, Siuslaw drained 15 seconds from the clock before Brandt was fouled and went to the line, where he made it a 3-point advantage, 42-39, with a crucial charity shot.

With seven seconds left, Siuslaw clamped down on defense, working its 2-3 zone and pressuring the perimeter.

The Bruins were able to take a last shot from the outside in hopes of tying the game with a 3-pointer, but the shot bounced off the rim with Hickson getting possession as the final buzzer went off.

"We just kept telling ourselves we can't foul," Reavis said of those final seconds. "It felt really good to come back and win like that."

Reavis led with 16 points, 3 steals and 5 rebounds. King had 10 points, 5 boards and 2 steals; Hickson had 9 points, 4 rebounds and 1 assist; Brandt had 4 points, 2 rebounds, 2 steals and 1 blocked shot; senior Marcos Reyna-Ayala had 2 points and 2 rebounds; Cornish had 1 point, 3 rebounds and 1 steal.

"That felt amazing," said Cornish, whose foul shot in the final second of the fourth period pushed things into overtime. "We really fought hard."

Last night, Siuslaw hosted Douglas (after press deadlines) and will be on the road Friday at North Bend.

"I'm very proud of how our young men never quit. It was an important win for us," Perry said. "I'm very excited to see where this season takes us."

Tip-off for Friday's game against the Bulldogs is 7:30 p.m.

Sailors from 1B

Lady Sailors got 13 points from sophomore Erin Michael.

"The girls are really making progress, forcing opponents to keep their starters in for the whole game," said Murray, whose roster rarely has anyone available from the bench. "I'm really proud of these girls for going out there and competing every single game."

For the boys, Friday's game with the Mountaineers was a near blowout for the Sailors, who outscored Falls City 30-9 in the first half.

led scoring with 14 points, 5 rebounds and a block despite playing just one half due to foul trouble.

Senior wing Hunter Simington had 11 points, 8 rebounds, 3 assists and 3 steals in the 41-29 win.

Junior post Dominic Wells had 9 points, 11 rebounds and 6 blocked shots.

"It was good to pick up a win at home," said Sailor boys coach Will Crook.

Thursday, the Sailors will be on the road at Siletz Valley.

Girls tip off at 5:30 p.m., followed by the boys at 7 p.m.

Fishing from 1B

that fall Chinook season is closed.

YAQUINA RIVER:
Steelhead

The Yaquina River is open for hatchery winter steelhead. Casting spinners, drifting bait or using a bobber and jig can be effective.

COOS COUNTY LAKES/PONDS: Trout

Rainbow trout were stocked in Upper Empire, Bradley, Saunders, Powers and Butterfield lakes in October. Fishing for these stocked fish has slowed down. Coos County lakes and ponds will not be stocked again until the spring.

COOS RIVER BASIN:
Dungeness crab, bay clams, rockfish, steelhead

Trout fishing in streams is closed until May 22.

A few steelhead have been caught the past few weeks in the West Fork Millicoma, East Fork Millicoma, and South Fork Coos rivers.

The West Fork Millicoma was the only river in the basin that was fishable over the past weekend.

Anglers are drifting eggs or corkies along the stream bottom or using a jig suspended under a bobber. Anglers fishing the South Fork Coos River above Dellwood will need a permit from Weyerhaeuser, which they can pick up at the Dellwood office.

In the Coos Basin 1 additional hatchery steelhead may be retained per day for a total aggregate of 3 adult fish harvested daily.

Anglers have been catching a few rockfish and surfperch along the jetties and submerged rock piles. Fishing for rockfish in the bay has been spotty. The marine fish daily bag limit for bottom fish (rockfish) is 7 fish and a separate daily limit for lingcod (2).

The 7 fish marine bag limit will remain in place, with these adjustments for 2017: Create a sub-bag limit of 6 black rockfish, remove the sub-bag limit for canary rockfish, add China/quillback/copper rockfishes to the sub-bag limit with blue/Deacon rockfish and change the limit from 3 to 4.

Finally remove the 10-inch minimum size for kelp greenling.

Retention of cabezon is not allowed until July 1.
