To forbid us anything is to make us have a mind for it.

—Michel de Montaigne ***

You have not converted a man because you have silenced him.

—John Morley ***

To see the Earth as we now see it, small and beautiful in that eternal silence where it floats, is to see ourselves as riders on the Earth together, brothers on that bright loveliness in the unending night.

—Archibald MacLeish ***

Every effort must be made in childhood to teach the young to use their own minds. For one thing is sure: If they don't make up their own minds, someone will do it for them.

—Eleanor Roosevelt
