Riverdale

Thursday at 9 p.m. on KWBP

Some familiar characters get big twists as this drama series inspired by the "Archie" comic books premieres with "Chapter One: The River's Edge." As the supposedly idyllic town of Riverdale tries to come to grips with the death of a popular student, Archie Andrews (KJ Apa) is the romantic target of both longtime friend Betty Cooper (Lili Reinhart) and newcomer Veronica Lodge (Camila Mendes). Cole Sprouse plays Jughead, and Luke Perry and Madchen Amick also star.

Sleepy Hollow

Friday at 9 p.m. on KLSR

People's most troubling memories are brought back to the forefront by a creature that strikes Washington, D.C., in the new episode "The People v. Ichabod Crane." The search for the perpetrator becomes that much more intense when a member of Crane's (Tom Mison) team is targeted. Jenny (Lyndie Greenwood) could be the key to saving the world. Guest star John Noble returns to the series as Harry Parrish. Janina Gavankar and Jeremy Davies also star.

NHL Hockey

Saturday at 7 p.m. on NBCSN

The NHL is about to showcase their top players in Sunday's All-star game from Staples Center in Los Angeles. But first fans will be treated to tonight's All-Star Skills Competition where the all-stars really show their stuff. Competitions determine who can skate the fastest, such as Detroit's Dylan Larkin who as a rookie last season set a new record of 12.894 mph in the speed skating competition. Montreal's Shea Weber meanwhile, has twice won the contest which determines the hardest shooter.
