Education, tobacco prevention topics of FACC meeting

The Siuslaw Education Foundation and Lane County Tobacco Prevention and Education Program will be presenters at the monthly meeting of the Florence Area Community Coalition (FACC) on Wednesday, Feb. 1, from 9 to 10:30 a.m. in the Bromley Room of the Siuslaw Public Library.

Board member Jeanne Shannon will share information about the Siuslaw Education Foundation (SEF) whose aim is to generate revenue for the Siuslaw and Mapleton schools.

The Foundation, formed in October 2015, has been able to purchase headsets for Mapleton students to use in classrooms and computer labs, a large projection screen for Siuslaw Middle School's multi-purpose room, materials for the development of a "Maker Space" in the library of the Siuslaw High School, and the construction of bookshelves for the Siuslaw Elementary School library.

Lane County representatives will explain "Tobacco 21," an educational and legislative campaign to raise the legal age to purchase tobacco products from 18 to 21.

Stephanie Shepard make a brief presentation about the City of Florence grants program.

Each month, participants are encouraged to bring donations for some community cause. This month the featured agencies are Siuslaw and Mapleton schools. Bring school supplies or cash donations.

Lists of school supplies can be found on the websites for each district at www.siuslaw.k12.or.us or www.mapleton.k12.or.us

Also, this year's "Cheers to Volunteers" event during which FACC recognizes area volunteers, will take place Wednesday, April 19, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Florence Events Center.

All local nonprofits are invited to treat their volunteers to a light lunch, speakers, prizes, and recognition for the many hours they give to our community.
