It was there she began to paint. Joy's colorful abstracts were inspired by the beauty of Fiji.

She later moved to Australia, then Honolulu, eventually settling back in San Mateo, Calif. There, she met and married Walter Tunick in 1984.

Joy and Walter spent some years travelling, and eventually moved to Florence in 2001. Joy and Walter are long-time members of the Florence Baha'i community.

Joy is survived by her husband, Walter; her children: Mark and Jan; daughter-in-law Caroline; Dena and her grandchildren: Justin and James, Danielle, Marion and Trae.
