The Viking boys basketball team came into Friday's final Far West League match-up in hopes of upsetting undefeated rival and league champion North Bend for several reasons — not the least of which was to secure the league's No. 2 spot heading into the state play-in game. To do so would mean the first post-season appearance by the Vikings in nearly a decade. In addition, it was also Senior Night, and potentially the last game on the home hardwood for seniors Brogan Cornish and Marcos Reyna-Ayala. Plus, handing the Bulldogs (10-0) their first loss of the season would be an added bonus. With all of those factors in mind, it

The Lady Vikings got to end their Far West League season at home last Friday while, at the same time, allowing its four seniors to take a bow during their last appearance on Siuslaw's hardwood. Destinie Tatum, Abby Watkins, Siuslaw senior Abby Watkins smiles after earning a trip to the freethrow line in the final minute of Friday's game against North Bend. Nikki Launius and Claire Waggoner were each recognized before the tipoff. North Bend, which was already assured of a state play-in game after clinching third place earlier that week, turned in a

Siuslaw wrestlers at state this weekend

BY NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

Siuslaw junior Richard Huff, currently ranked No. 1 in 4A wrestling's 113-pound division, will be on the mats at Veterans Memorial Coliseum this weekend for a chance at the state title.

Huff will open the tournament by taking on fellow Far West League wrestler Colton West of Marshfield.

Along with Huff, the Vikings will have three other grapplers on the mats, including sophomore Riley Jennings, wrestling at 152 pounds. Jennings will open the tourney against senior

Siuslaw News

Among those who will be competing at this year's state bowling tournament will be both Viking varsity bowling teams, on the lanes in Portland Feb. 25 and 26.

The varsity boys team, coached by Kathy Anderson, is sending a team familiar with the state environment, with most of its team returning from last season's state-tournament lineup.

The boys roster includes Patrick Hill, Cesar Castillo, Kainunn Harrison, Logan Lindner, Evan Johnson and Neil DeVera.

The team is coming off a
