period, posting 12 points to Newport's 13, the Viks entered the second half with a 9-point deficit after the Cubs drained a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The third quarter belonged to the Cubs, who outscored Siuslaw 18-8 for a 45-26 lead heading into the final period.

Though the Vikings had the advantage with freethrow attempts after Newport quickly racked up fouls, Siuslaw only went 17-of-28 from the line. That, combined with 12-of-38 from the field, kept the Vikings from finding traction against Newport — which went on to win it, 58-41.

King had the team's top scoring with 14 points. Reavis had 9, junior guard Jared Brandt had 6 points, freshman Sam Myers had 5, Cornish had 3, senior Marcos Reyna-Ayala had 2, and junior Jake Hickson had 1 point.

Off the glass, Reavis grabbed 12 boards, and Cornish, King, Brandt, Hickson and Myers each had 3 rebounds.

Despite the loss, it was Siuslaw's most successful season in seven years. Under first-year coach Dylan Perry, the Vikings were 10-14 over all, compared to 1-21 just a year ago.

That same night, Mazama beat Marshfield (61-48), North Marion buried Douglas (83-42), Banks stopped Stayton (60-49), Sutherlin beat Klamath Falls (52-43) and Sisters narrowly defeated Madras (46-39).

Newport will advance to take on Gladstone.

North Bend, which had a bye last week, is the only Far West team left in the play-offs.
