Spiritopia is a craft distillery based in Corvallis that specializes in liqueurs and brandy. This family-owned business was founded by Spirit Chemist Chris Beatty four years ago and now has four products: three liqueurs — ginger, apple and pomegranate — and a Bourbon-Style Apple Brandy.

The ginger liqueur is very popular and won a Best of Show/Double Gold Medal at the Seattle International Spirits Competition in 2016. The apple liqueur is made from 100 percent Pacific Northwest apples with over 60 apples going into each bottle. The Pomegranate is our newest product and features fresh, bright fruit from California and our apple brandy as the base spirit.

Our brandy is quite different from the liqueurs. It is a "cask strength" brandy that is bottled at 104 proof. After distilling on a small pot still, the brandy is aged in charred American oak which gives it a whiskey-like taste profile. For those who enjoy sipping Bourbon, Cognac or other whiskies, this may be your new favorite.

Assistant distiller Sebastian will be at the Home and Garden show and pouring samples of all the products.

Winter Green Farm

Winter Green Farm is owned by three farm families — Jack Gray and Mary Jo Wade, Chris and Shannon Overbaugh and Wali and Jabrila Via. The farm is a pioneer in holistic farming and went certified organic at the first opportunity — thirty years ago, in 1984. Our organic and biodynamic practices allow us to grow healthy food while nurturing the vitality of the land. The six Winter Green farmer-owners have a combined agricultural experience of over 150 years farming this land.

Members of our CSA enjoy over 40 different vegetables and berries with exceptional taste and quality and our award-winning organic produce is available each week in Portland, Eugene and Veneta. We also sell wholesale to restaurants and grocers.

Our grass-fed, certified organic beef is healthful, raised humanely and simply delicious.

At Winter Green Farm, we know the satisfaction and the sense of meaning that comes with engaging in the work of growing food and participating in the rhythms of nature. Growing a healthy world includes creating opportunities for folks of all ages to come to our farm to renew their relationship to the land.

Join us for field trips, open houses, and learning opportunities at Winter Green Farm's beautiful 171 acres in Noti, Oregon. We seek to strengthen the connection between the community and the land that sustains us all.

Growing great food and making it available to people regardless of income is one of our core values. We are also strong advocates of justice for our farm employees, providing mentoring and steady advancement in wages.

We view our farm as a living organism. Taking care of our soils, riparian areas, wetlands, and wildlife, and growing a wide diversity of crops, helps us to raise nutritious food for people, while also preserving the land for future generations.
