Sheriffs offer results of February safety blitz

From Feb. 6 to 19, Lane County Sheriff's Office deputies conducted overtime saturation patrols focused on seatbelt use, child restraints, speed and distracted driving. These patrols were funded solely through grant monies provided through the Oregon State Sheriff's Association and Oregon Department of Transportation. This was held in conjunction with the nation-wide effort sponsored by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. During this two week saturation period, deputies contacted more than 70 drivers in a combined 24 hours of overtime. Deputies had the following enforcement contacts:

- 22 Safety Belt Contacts
- 5 Child Restraint
- 3 Driving While Suspended
- 21 Speeding
- 3 Distracted Driving
- 45 Other Traffic Contacts

Grant funding will provide additional overtime for Seatbelt Enforcement Saturation Patrols throughout the year for holidays and local Lane County special events. The Lane County Sheriff's Office wants to remind motorist to buckle up and drive safely.
