

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

BARRETT—Julie Barrett, who was a long-time resident of Florence, passed away unexpectedly Feb. 23, from complications of surgery.

Julie Barrett

Julie was diagnosed with throat cancer in 2014. She had surgery to remove the cancer the end of January. She fought hard and was in remission when she passed away. She is survived by her mother; five older siblings; her partner of more than 10 years; three children: Jennifer Barrett-Neet, Stefanie Barrett-Dean and Kevin Hoyt.

She most enjoyed spending the last five years in the company of her five grandchildren, whom she shares with her ex-husband, Doug Barrett.

She was taken way to soon and will be forever missed.

A service will be held for her Friday, March 24, at the meeting Yurt at West Woahink State Park, at 2 p.m.

Siuslaw Public Library soon to be tobacco free zone

The Siuslaw Public Library District Board recently voted to designate the Florence campus of the Library District a smoke and tobacco free campus.

The act was taken at the Board's regular meeting held on Wednesday, March 15, and the new policy will take effect April 15.

The new policy prohibits tobacco use and smoking in all forms in or on property owned by the Library District. Devices utilized for the use or smoking of tobacco are also included in the prohibition.

These include electronic cigarettes, inhalant delivery systems, smoke-free oral tobacco use, cigarillos, cigars, pipes, hookahs, and any other preparation or delivery method of tobacco.

The new policy applies to employees, patrons, and all other visitors.

Tobacco use or smoking will be allowed in enclosed vehicles parked more than 25 feet away from any entrance or air intake vent.

For more information about the new policy please visit the Siuslaw Public Library in person, call 541-997-3132, or visit the Library's website at www.siuslawlibrary.org.

SVFR receives improved protection class rating

Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue is pleased to announce that they have received an improved insurance protection class rating from the Insurance Service Office (ISO).

ISO is an organization that provides information on fire loss risk to insurance companies. Insurance companies use ISO ratings to determine property insurance rates.

The previous rating was a 5/10 rating and the new rating is a 4/10.

Fire Chief Jim Langborg stated that properties within five road miles of a fire station qualify for the improved rating. Langborg advised that ISO also includes a sub-category rating that includes properties within five to seven road miles of a fire station and a credible water source.

Chief Langborg recommends that fire district property owners contact their insurance companies to determine if these improved ratings could lower their property insurance rates.

Citizens wanting more information can call Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue at 541-997-3212.

Woman arrested in Reedsport for driving a stolen vehicle

Douglas County Sheriff's Office arrested Bobbie Pruett,

Bobbie Pruett

a Florence-area transient, on Thursday after a pursuit involving a stolen vehicle. Around 2:30 p.m. on March 23, a deputy in the Reedsport area overheard Oregon State Police looking for a stolen silver Volvo from the Lane County area. A short time later, the deputy spotted the vehicle on Lower Smith River Road near mile marker 7.

The deputy confirmed the vehicle was stolen and attempted to make a traffic stop; however, the driver failed to yield.

The deputy pursued the vehicle at varying speeds averaging 45-55 miles per hour. The driver of the stolen vehicle eventually stopped when she encountered downed trees on a gravel road and was unable to go any further.

The deputy was able to take the suspect, 48-year-old Pruett, into custody without incident.

Pruett was lodged at the Douglas County Jail on charges of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and attempting to elude police in a vehicle.

Douglas County Sheriff's Office was assisted by Lane County Sheriff's Office and Reedsport Police Department.
