

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

VINGELEN—Rosemarie

Madaline DeSocio Swanger Vingelen was born May 32, 1931, to Angelo and Concetta DeSocio in Arnold, Pa.

She was one of six children: Frank, Chris, Jenny, Frankie and Albert, all from Italian descent and first-generation American born.

Rose met and married her first husband, Irvin Luther Swanger, Feb 8, 1951, in new Kensington, Pa. They tried life in several states, having eight children by the time they arrived and settled in Eugene, Ore.

She and Irv divorced June 22, 1969.

She met Kenneth George Vingelen, who was to be her second husband, on a blind date set up by a friend. They married Jan 31, 1983, in Florence. She and Ken shared many happy years on the Oregon Coast.

Rose was preceded in death by her parents; brothers Frank, Frankie and Albert; sister Jenny; son Perry; daughter Connie; first husband Irv; and second husband Ken.

Rose is survived by sister Chris; daughters Suzie and Mary; sons Luther, Kenny, Thomas and Larry; numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Following Rose's last wishes, private interment was next to her son Perry and daughter Connie on March 9, 2017, at West Lawn Cemetery in Eugene.

Correction

In the front-page article, "Council Declines Agenda Proposal," in the March 25, 2017, issue of the Siuslaw News, three quotes attributed to Florence Mayor Joe Henry were actually made by Florence City Councilor George Lyddon.

Lyddon said, "What we are being asked to do, as other sanctuary cities have been doing, is ignoring a portion of law. Is that anarchy or is it not?"

Later he said, "Why bring all this havoc when we are already doing what we are supposed to? It wouldn't be changing a thing, except by putting a sign up that says we are a sanctuary city."

Lyddon also said, "I predict we will see a huge backlash if this goes forward, not just from the military, but we have a lot of retired people in this community that will go ballistic. I don't think it is worth it when we are already doing it, according to state law."

The article also said the planning meeting was held on April 22. It was held on March 22.

Siuslaw News regrets the errors.
