On April 10, the Siuslaw News launches its new website. The new site will be much more extensive, useful and powerful than the one it replaces.

Local news and information on the new site will triple. Opportunities for local businesses, organizations and individuals to post their commentary will be available. There will be more tools for local videos, audio and photos. A powerful search engine explores the site's current and previous articles and photos. All content on the site will be customized for smartphones and tablets.

The Siuslaw News would like to invite you to a special viewing & lite lunch on April 12
