WLCF announces scholarship application submission date

Western Lane Community Foundation (WLCF) has announced that April 14 will be the deadline for WLCF scholarship applications, which are open to seniors at Mapleton and Siuslaw high schools.

WLCF administers 20 scholarship funds, most of which are awarded annually, and range from $500 to $2,500 each. The funds represent yearly earnings from funds WLCF manages on behalf of generous donors of the local community.

Two new scholarships were added this past year, The Boys and Girls Club Scholarship and the Brittney Hartzell Baguley Memorial Scholarship.

Scholarships are available for traditional four-year colleges as well as community colleges and accredited trade schools.

While academic achievement is one criteria used in determining recipients, the scholarship committee also carefully reviews outside activities, scholastic improvement, volunteerism, economic need and work history.

Several of the scholarships are directed toward students in particular fields of education or with other qualifying characteristics such as mechanical interest, nursing and others.

Last year, WLCF awarded more than $26,000 in scholarships.

Applications can be obtained at the high school counseling offices or on line at www.wlcfonline.org and must be post marked or received no later than April 14, at P.O. Box 1589, Florence, OR, 97439, or submitted to the web address above by the same date.

For more information regarding the graduating senior scholarships, contact school counselors or the WLCF office at 541- 997-1274.

CAT announces auditions

Class Act Theatre is holding open auditions for their first 2017 production: "I love You, You're Perfect, Now Change" a comedic musical review by Joe DiPietro.

The play is presented in the form of a series of vignettes connected by the central theme of love and relationships.

The play's tagline is "Everything you have ever secretly thought about dating, romance, marriage, lovers, husbands, wives and in-laws, but were afraid to admit."

Despite there being many characters, the show is done with a small cast: this production will use a cast of six - three men and three women.

Requirements are a stage age of between 20 - 35 years old (can be older or younger but must be able to portray those ages), minor light dancing and an energetic stage presence.

Performers are asked to prepare a short musical number (One verse & one chorus, 32 to 64 bars) from a musical of their choice.

A piano accompanist will be available if you bring your own sheet music.

As an alternative, you may bring a CD with no vocal track or bring your music on a recording device (i-pad, smart phone, flash drive, etc.) which will be plugged into a sound bar.

After the musical audition, performers will be reading excerpts from the script.

We try to make the auditions fun and stress-free so don't be shy.

The auditions will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, April 24, and Tuesday, April 25, at Class Act Theatre, 509 Kingwood St. (corner of Kingwood Street and Rhododendron Drive), Florence.

Performance dates are June 16, 17, 18, 23, 24 & 25, 2017.

For more information stop in at the theatre on Mondays or Wednesdays between noon and 5:30 p.m. or call 541-991-3773 and leave your name and number and we'll get back to you ASAP.
