THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

BARRETT-BRUCE—Terry Jean (Pinto) Barrett-Bruce, 58, formerly of Florence, passed away April 7, 2017, at her home in Eugene, of natural causes.

Terry Barrett-Bruce

She was born Sept. 9, 1958, in Tokyo, Japan, to Rocky and Linda Pinto. She became a U.S. citizen in July of 1965.

Terry spent the majority of her life in Florence, graduating from Siuslaw High School in 1976. Her greatest loves were her grandchildren and her pets. She loved to cause mischief with her grandkids.

She also enjoyed traveling, the Oregon Ducks and RV camping along the Oregon Coast.

Terry is survived by her two daughters: Melissa (Justin) Braun of Olympia, Wash., and Kelli (Jim) Warick of Yelm, Wash.; her grandchildren: Bjorn, Brilee, Barrett and Clara; and her long-time love, Roger Bruce of Florence.

Terry was preceded in death by her parents, Rocky and Linda; and her brother, Stephen Pinto.

A private family service will be held. Terry will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her.

YARROW—Howard I. Yarrow, born April 8, 1937, to Irvin C. and Irene Yarrow.

Howard Yarrow

Howard joined the Navy when he was 17 years old and later met and married his wife, Jean. They were married 60 years.

Howard retired from Castaic Correction Facility in California and moved with Jean to Florence, where they both enjoyed fishing,boating, camping and singing praise songs with their many friends.

Howard was preceded in death by his son, John Yarrow.

Howard leaves behind his loving wife, Jean Yarrow; a son, James Yarrow; daughters Cynthia Yarrow and Susan Yarrow Jensen; nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Howard will be missed

Rest is peace.

Services will be held at Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home on May 12, beginning at 2 p.m.

HALL—Mary Caroline Hall, 82, was born June 17, 1934, in Santa Maria, Calif., to William and Mary (Campbell) Fickle.

Mary Hall

Caroline became a Christian at an early age and never looked back. She attended colleges at Goleta and Northridge and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Mathematics and Statistics in 1966. At that time she started her professional career as a statistician at the U.S. Navy base at Point Mugu, Calif., and worked her way up to an Electronics Engineer.

Caroline drove a Sunbeam Tiger everywhere she went. As a side interest, she established a costume business in 1963 which thrived until her retirement when she sold the building.

Caroline and Michael met at work in 1967 and were married March 23, 1968. They retired in 1989 and moved to Florence, where she demonstrated her skill at homemaking and gardening.

Caroline loved traveling, shopping, reading, shopping, working on her genealogy and shopping. In her spare time, she also worked on millinery, flower arranging, playing her harp and making fascinators.

Caroline's final graduation was April 21, 2017.

She is survived by her husband, Michael; two daughters, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, send your remembrances to Florence Caring Pregnancy Center or Resurrection Lutheran Church.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge in arrangements.

LCC appoints Muenzer to fill board vacancy

The Lane Community College Board of Education appointed Melanie Muenzer to fill the Zone 1 vacancy at its April 12 meeting.

Muenzer will complete the term which expires June 30, 2017. She is running for election to that seat in the May 16 special election.

Muenzer lives in West Eugene.

She is associate vice president for academic administration and chief of staff to the provost at the University of Oregon.

In prior experience she served for seven years at the U.S. Department of Education as an appointee of President Obama.

The Zone 1 seat was vacated last month when former board member Sharon Stiles announced that she was moving out of district.

Zone 1 represents western Lane County including Florence, Veneta and West Eugene.
