

MAY 2017

Living green

The Florence Green Fair will offer dozens of options to leaving a smaller carbon footprint, from what to grow to recycled art.

Discover new and interesting ways to “go green” with the help of more than 30 vendors who will be on hand from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This event is geared towards anyone wanting to learn more about environmentally friendly resources and products that could be used at home or in the work place.

Check out Oregon Coast Humane Society’s Give or Take area to bring and trade small items such as books, DVDs and CDs, small furniture, appliances, clothes, shoes, toys and more.

More than 750 people are expected to attend the eighth annual Florence Green Fair set for Saturday, May 6, at the Florence Events Center.

Piano concert

The Piano Chameleons will perform at the Florence Events Center May 24 as part of the SEAc coast concert series.

Two grand pianos facing each other while classical music and jazz merge in a burst of virtuosity — it’s a night to remember, and a night that SEAc coast Entertainment will bring the Piano Chameleons to the FEC on May 24 at 7 p.m.

The stage will come alive with two grand pianos as pianists Matt Herskovitz and John Roney perform as one.

Undisputed masters of improvisation, these two virtuosos take pleasure in revisiting jazz standards and great classic pieces to create new musical experiences.

A versatile pianist by nature, Herskovitz brings a unique perspective to every single style he plays. The virtuoso has played in various festivals and concerts across the world.

Among other things, Herskovitz has played at Carnegie Hall, the International Jazz Festival in Montreal and many European festivals.

Throughout his career, Herskovitz has been playing with a wide variety of artists including: Andrea Griminelli, Lara St. John, David Gotay, Coral Egan, Charles Papasoff and many others.
