In things essential, unity; in doubtful, liberty; in all things, charity.
-Rupertus Meldenius

A man's work is nothing but this slow trek to rediscover, through the detours of art, those two or three great and simple images in whose presence his heart first opened.
-Albert Camus

As far as I am concerned, a painting speaks for itself. What is the use of giving explanations, when all is said and done? A painter has only one language.
-Pablo Picasso

A true friend unbosoms freely, advises justly, assists readily, adventures boldly, takes all patiently, defends courageously and continues a friend unchangeably.
-William Penn

An artist is someone who produces things that people don't need to have but that he-for some reason-thinks it would be a good idea to give them.
-Andy Warhol
