

LRP invites artists to submit new logo design

The board of directors of Last Resort Players, a local nonprofit theater group that performs at the Florence Events Center, is inviting local artists to create a new logo to replace LRP's current logo.

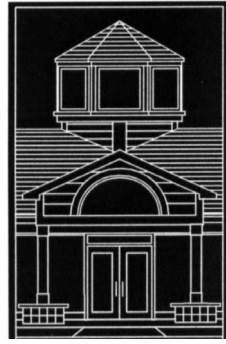

Submissions must be received no later than Monday, May 15, and more than one design can be submitted by artists. The design can be in black and white or color.

Submissions can be mailed to Last Resort Players, P.O. Box 2104, Florence, OR, 97439 or emailed to LRP secretary Judy Adams at Lastresortplayers2@gmail.com.

The winner will receive $200 and the distinction of having their logo mass produced and displayed in many formats.

Call Judy Adams for more information at 541-999-9392.

The Revenge of Analog
By David Sax

A funny thing happened on the way to the digital utopia. We've begun to fall back in love with the very analog goods and ideas the tech gurus insisted that we no longer needed.

Businesses that once looked outdated, from film photography to brick-and-mortar retail, are now spring with new life.

Notebooks, records, and stationary have become cool again. Behold the Revenge of Analog.

Author David Sax has uncovered story after story of entrepreneurs, small business owners, and even big corporations who've found a market selling not apps or virtual solutions, but real, tangible things. As e-books are supposedly remaking reading, independent bookstores have sprouted up across the country.

As music allegedly migrates to the cloud, vinyl record sales have grown more than ten times over the past decade. Even the offices of tech giants like Google and Facebook increasingly rely on pen and paper to drive their brightest ideas.

Sax's work reveals a deep truth about how humans shop, interact and even think.

Blending psychology and observant with first-rate reportage, Sax shows the limited appeal of the purely digital life — and the robust future of the real world outside it.

Friends of the Library book sale

The Friends of the Library will be holding a book sale on Saturday, May 13, and Sunday, May 14, in the library's Bromley Room.

The hours on Saturday are 9 a.m. for Friends members only (you can buy a membership at the door) and 10 a.m. for non-Friends members. The sale lasts until 4 p.m.

On Sunday the hours are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Books come from many donations as well as weeded copies from the library's collection. One special for this sale: If you buy a Friends of the Library canvas book bag for $15 you can fill it up with as many books (for free) that you can carry.

Don't miss this great opportunity to get some great books at bargain prices, and help the Friends and the library at the same time!

Ancestry Library Edition

The library is pleased to provide public access to the Ancestry Library Edition database. This database, the library version of Ancestry.com, is a genealogical database, providing access to U.S. and U.K. census records, Canadian records, records from European countries, vital records, immigration records, military records, and records for all U.S. states.

Among the newer group of records that are available through Ancestry are World War II Draft Cards for Young Men (ages 18-44) for selected states and U.S. Army Transport Service Records (with lists of World War I soldiers and the ships they took to travel to and from Europe).

Unlike our other genealogy database, World Vital Records, Ancestry can only be accessed from within the library at any Internet terminal. If you would like to try out this great new family history resource, just stop by the Reference Desk for more information.

The Siuslaw Genealogical Society has contributed to making this database available.

Sea Lions Caves names Mans as assist. manager

Sea Lion Caves has announced Seth Mans as the company's new assistant manager.

Mans will oversee the technical, maintenance parts of operations, as well as assist the general manager with employees.

The privately owned wildlife preserve and bird sanctuary is America's largest sea cave and has been in continuous operation since 1932, welcoming visitors from around the world.

New Sea Lion Caves assistant manager Seth Mans started there in 1995 as a parking lot attendant.

Mans, a long-time employee at Sea Lion Caves, started his career in 1995 as a summertime parking lot attendant. Mans eventually worked into the head of the maintenance department.

"I enjoy hunting and fishing in the local area and spending time outdoors," Mans said. "I'm proud to be part of this protected environment of nature on the beautiful Oregon coast while meeting and educating visitors from around the world."

Born in 1976 and raised in Florence, he is son of Dr. Raymond Mans and Sarah Mans.

He is also a 1995 graduate of Siuslaw High School.

Peace Harbor earns 4-Star rating from survey

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMMS) recently released its quarterly review of patient experience survey results, summarized in Hospital Consumer Assessment of Healthcare Providers and Systems (HCAHPS) star ratings.

PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Hospital received recognition for its 4-Star Rating, based on surveys from inpatients discharged October 2015 to September 2016.

"I am proud of our entire Peace Harbor team," said Rick Yecny, Peace Harbor's Chief Administrative Officer. "The recognition is well deserved and demonstrates our ongoing commitment to our community and our Mission."

"I want to thank our caregivers for continuing to provide safe, compassionate care for our patients — every time, every touch."

The rating itself indicates an above-average score, and was an improvement over last year's rating of 3-Stars.

Peace Harbor received 4-Stars in the categories of "communication with nurses and doctors," "pain management," "communication about medications," "cleanliness," "discharge information" and "will- ingness to recommend."

It also received an impressive 5-Star rating for its outstanding responsiveness to patient needs.

LCC Florence offering driver safety class May 18

A Driver Safety class is being offered by Lane Community College at Florence and is scheduled for Thursday, May 18, from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., at the Shorewood Retirement Residences.

This course offers an important opportunity to learn how to drive more efficiently and safely.

The course contains up-to-date information about changes over time in ourselves, our vehicles, our roads and new laws. The course is open to all ages.

The content of this course can help boost safety awareness, refresh and improve driving skills, minimize crash risk, increase confidence, prolong mobility and maintain independence.

Completion of this six-hour driving refresher course can yield discounted auto insurance premiums for safe driving individuals 55 and older.

Pre-registration is required and can be made by calling the LCC in Florence at 541-997-8444.

The course fee is $20 with a $5 discount for current AARP members. The course fee includes a workbook and other materials, and is payable to AARP at the class.

For more information, call Laura Merz at 541-997-8444.
