The theme for the May meeting of the Viewfinders Camera Club was "Unreal" and the results were both innovative and off the wall.

First place went to Betty Romero for a picture composed of a man's face with woman's hands coming out of the top of his head.

Second place was captured by Bill Stone, who entered a photo from his "Red Chair" series.

Third place was picked up by Ed Wilent for his photo-

This was the last meeting prior to the summer break. In September, the Viewfinders will judge the following themes: "Back Lit," "Mirrors" and "Street Scene."

'Peace Scholarship' local winner announced

Truth In Recruiting, a program of Community Alliance of Lane County and the Rotary Club of Eugene, are pleased to announce the winner of a $500 Peace Scholarship is Destinie Tatum from Siuslaw High School.

Tatum is a senior and she will receive the grant award at the May 25 award night at the High School.

The Peace Scholarships are supported by donations from individual in Western Lane County and from Community Alliance of Lane County.

The awards are also supported by the Rotary Club of Eugene as a way to promote alternatives to military enlistment. The Truth in Recruiting scholarships are an effort to support youth who have a commitment to peace and social justice.

Siuslaw News congratulates Leila Garrett of Florence for submitting the winning easter color contest entry. Leila is 8 years old and is a student in Mrs. Green's classroom at Siuslaw Elementary. Her favorite subject is math.

Pictured with her easter basket full of goodies and the winning entry, Leila was full of smiles!

Siuslaw News thanks everyone that entered the contest. The entries were well done and very colorful!

Rhody Days 'Show & Shine' T-Shirts available

T-Shirts for this year's Rhody Days, "Show & Shine" car show are on sale at Twin Lakes Store, located three miles north of Florence on Highway 101.

T-shirts will also be available at the registration booth set up in the parking lots of Grocery Outlet and City Lights Cinema during Friday Night's pre-registration from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. on May 19.

The T-Shirts will be on sale as well on Saturday during the car show at the same location.

The registration booth opens at 8 a.m. Saturday, and will conduct T-shirt sales and the favorite raffle that runs from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

This year's event T-shirts show two impressive classic vehicles from local owners and the U.S. Coast Guard Helicopter.

For more information, or to order T-shirts, contact Jeanette Scalera at jeanette_scalera@yahoo.com or call 541-902-0916.

FRAA hosts new show

FRAA's new Rhody Days Arts Festival is going to be held for two days over Rhody Weekend at the Florence Events Center.

The art festival will take place Friday, May 19, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Saturday, May 20, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

In the tradition of the Arts Festival, visitors will experience the latest artistry in many different genres. Those will include painting, jewelry, glass, photography, ceramics, woodworking and much more.

The artisans participating will be donating 10 percent of their sales to support the FRAA Art Center, 120 Maple St. in Old Town.

Admission to the FRAA Art Festival is free to the public.
