Three Rivers Casino Resort will be presenting Jesse Leigh at the Blue Bills Sports Bar and Tap Room on May 19 and 20, from 9 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Although the artist's main genre is country, the songs on Leigh's debut album are influenced by a variety of music styles and they appeal to a wide range of music lovers. Blue Bills is located inside TRC, which is located at 5647 Highway 126.

FRAA welcomes two new artists to gallery

Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA), 120 Maple Street, recently welcomed two new artists to its gallery.

As the artists explained, "On a lark, we combined talents to celebrate Oregon birds on local driftwood."

They call their collaboration "Driftwood Art," the result of a retired carpenter, Andy Nedder, and a professional artist, Edie Carhart, sharing a new creative venture.

Their wall display will definitely "catch your eye," as will all the new artwork that has recently been added to the gallery.

The public is invited to enjoy the gallery Wednesday through Sunday, as well on the Oregon Alzheimer's to offer classes at library

The Alzheimer's Association Oregon Chapter (AAOC) will be holding an education class, "Dementia Conversations," from 5 to 6:30 p.m. on Monday, June 5, at the Siuslaw Public Library in the Bromley Room.

The library is located at 1460 Ninth St.

This class is designed to help attendees discuss with family challenging and often uncomfortable topics that surround Alzheimer's and dementia. Join the AAOC and learn some tips for breaking the ice with family about this often misunderstood condition.

This class will help participants to address some of the most common issues of this illness. These will include: Going to the doctor for a diagnosis or medical treatment, deciding when to stop driving, and making legal and financial plans for future care.

This class is free, but registration is required. To register, call 800-272-3900.

For a full list of upcoming classes, visit www.alz.org/oregon.
