

Florence Habitat finishes latest home

Florence Habitat for Humanity's most recently constructed home is complete.

On May 27, at 2:30 p.m., the Fuller family, Amber and Nathan and their four children, Destini, Alexandra, Leland and Joycelynn, become official home owners following a special dedication ceremony.

The public is invited to celebrate with the Fullers and the Habitat for Humanity volunteers who assisted with this project on this special occasion.

Through total commitment and hard work this family has met all of Habitat for Humanity requirements and earned the zero-interest 30 year mortgage that secures the purchase of their new home.

The Fullers' invested 500 hours of 'Sweat Equity' and the donation of thousands of hours of work by the talented building crew built this home beginning last summer. The building crew from Habitat was often interrupted during their work by rain storms and high winds.

In addition to the builders, other volunteers made lunches and cookies for the crew and people from the community walked in the annual BeachWalk to raise funds.

Habitat family partners guided the Fullers through the complexities of home ownership and Florence businesses generously provided materials and labor.

Church congregations, service clubs and organizations gathered housewarming gifts.

All of this happened in support of Habitat's vision to "insure that everyone has a decent place to live".

Join the community in celebration of the Fullers' achievement and the completion of Habitat's latest completed home on May 27 at 2:30 at 1875 37th Street in Florence, just east of Highway 101 on the north side of 37th St..

Oregon Alzheimer's to offer classes at library

The Alzheimer's Association Oregon Chapter will be holding an education class, "Dementia Conversations," from 5 to 6:30 p.m., Monday June 5, at the Siuslaw Public Library in the Bromley Room. The library is located at 1460 Ninth St.

This class is designed to help attendees discuss with family challenging and often uncomfortable topics that surround Alzheimer's and dementia.

Join the Alzheimer's Association Oregon Chapter and learn some tips for breaking the ice with family about this often misunderstood condition.

This class will help participants to address some of the most common issues of this illness.

These will include; going to the doctor for a diagnosis or medical treatment, deciding when to stop driving, and making legal and financial plans for future care.

This class is free, but registration is required.

To register, call 800-272-3900.

For a full list of upcoming classes, visit www.alz.org/oregon.

Friends of Florence seeks volunteer van drivers

The Friends of Florence, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, is in need of volunteer drivers.

The only requirement is a clean driving record and under the age of 80.

Friends of Florence drivers provide free transportation, Monday through Friday, for cancer patients seeking treatment in the valley.

Drivers transport patients needing radiation treatment at the Willamette Valley Cancer Institute in Eugene or the Oregon Urology Center in Springfield.

Drivers leave Peace Harbor Hospital at 8 a.m. and are usually back in Florence between noon and 1 p.m.

There is no charge for this service. Drivers usually only drive one day each month.

For more information or to volunteer as a driver, contact Bart Mealer, Driver Supervisor, at 541-997-8663.

The Florence Organic Farmers' Market will start its 21st season on May 20 and continuing through October 28.

The market is open SATURDAYS, 10am – 2pm at 310 Highway 101 (Pro Lumber)

The market accepts WIC and Farm Direct Nutrition vouchers.

For more information, call Maria at 541-902-8815.

$500 REWARD FOR SAFE RETURN.
